Islamicate Textiles Faegheh Shirazi, 2023-04-06. Textiles and clothing are interwoven with Islamic culture. In Islamicate Textiles, readers are taken on a journey from Central Asia to Tanzania to uncover the central roles that textiles play within Muslim majority communities. This thematically arranged book sheds light on the traditions, rituals, and religious practices of these regions and the ways in which each one incorporates materials and clothing. Drawing on examples including Iranian lion carpets and Arabic keffiyeh, Faegheh Shirazi frames these textiles and totemic items as important cultural signifiers that together form a dynamic and fascinating material culture. Like a developing language, this culture expands, bends, and develops to suit the needs of new generations and groups across the world. The political significance of Islamicate textiles is also explored. Faegheh Shirazi's writing reveals the fraught relationship between the East with its sought-after materials and much-valued textiles and the European countries that purchased and repurposed these goods and lays bare the historical and contemporary connections between textiles, colonialism, immigration, and economics. Dr. Shirazi also discusses gender and how textiles and clothing are intimately linked with sexuality and gender identity. Textiles: Production, Trade and Demand Maureen Fennell Mazzaoui, 2016-12-05. This volume examines the role of textiles within the expanding global economy in the Age of European Exploration. Major themes include the opening of new markets and responses to competition in the cloth trade, evolving techniques and modes of production, and changes in the patterns of consumption of local and imported cloth in a comparative cross-cultural context. Textile Trades, Consumer Cultures, and the Material Worlds of the Indian Ocean Pedro Machado, Sarah Fee, Gwyn Campbell, 2018-02-09. This collection examines cloth as a material and consumer object from early periods to the twenty-first century across multiple oceanic sites from Zanzibar, Muscat, and Kampala to Ajanta, Srivijaya, and Osaka. It moves beyond usual focuses on a single fibre such as cotton or place such as India to provide a fresh, expansive perspective of the ocean as an interaction-based arena with an internal dynamism and historical coherence forged by material exchange and human relationships. Contributors map shifting social, cultural, and commercial circuits to chart the many histories of cloth across the region. They also trace these histories up to the present with discussions of contemporary trade in Dubai, Zanzibar, and Eritrea. Richly illustrated, this collection brings together new and diverse strands in the long story of textiles in the Indian Ocean past and present.
