Thai Women In The Global Labor Force:

Thai Women in the Global Labor Force Mary Beth Mills,1999 This text is an ethnographic examination of young women migrants in rural and urban Thailand The author focuses on the hundreds of thousands of young women who fill the factories and sweatshops of the Bangkok metropolis following them as they travel from the village of Baan Naa Sakae Thai Women in the Global Labor Force Mary Beth Mills,1999 Geographies of Women's Health Nancy Davis Lewis,Isabel Dyck,Sara McLafferty,2012-11-12 This international collection explores the relationships between society place gender and health and how these play out in different parts of the world The chapters work together in examining the complex layering of social economic and political relations that frame women s health The authors demonstrate that women s health needs to be understood in place if gains are to be made in improving women s health and health care Girls of the Factory M. Laetitia Cairoli,2011-06-01 In Morocco today the idea of female laborers is generally frowned upon Yet despite this many women are beginning to find work in factories Laetitia Cairoli spent a year in the ancient city of Fes Girls of the Factory tells the story of what life is like for working women Forced to find a factory job herself so that she could speak more intimately with working women she was able to learn firsthand why they work what working means to them and how important earning a wage is to their sense of self Cairoli conveys a general sense of the working life of women in Morocco by describing daily life inside a Moroccan sewing factory She also reveals the additional work they face inside their homes More than an ethnography this volume is also for those who want to better understand what life is like for a new generation of young women just entering the workforce Thailand at the Margins Jim Glassman,2004-03-04 Jim Glassman addresses the role of the state in the industrial transformation of what was before the economic crisis of 1997 98 one of Southeast Asia s fastest growing economies Approaching this issue from a different angle to those dominating 1980s and 1990s debates about the role of states in East Asian growth Glassman argues that the Thai state has been both proactive and interventionist in encouraging industrial transformation contrary to what neo liberals have asserted but at the same time has not been a developmental state of the sort championed by neo Weberian analysts of East Asia Analyzing the Cold War period the period of the economic boom as well as the economic crisis and its political aftershock Thailand at the Margins recasts the story of the Thai state s post World War II development performance by focusing on uneven industrialization and the interaction between internationalization and the transformation of Thai labour Thai Migrant Sexworkers K. Aoyama,2009-01-30 Exploring sexwork and trafficking in a globalized culture and economy this book offers a critique of increasingly stringent policing worldwide following the UN protocol against trafficking in persons It highlights the grey area between sex work and trafficking and draws on the themes of gender migration and deviance The “Bare Life” of Thai Migrant Workmen in Singapore Pattana Kitiarsa,2014-01-05 Transnational labor migration often begins with the dream of securing a more stable and prosperous future a chance to survive The lure of global cities as a place to attain that dream looms large within the context of rural urban migration flows This book reveals some of the complex phenomena and processes that strip bare the lives and dreams of migrant workers living abroad whose life experiences are overwhelmingly dominated by stress and suffering and diminished gendered roles The book illuminates the intimate aspects of how Thai male migrants have transcended their harsh reality while living under Singapore's strict regulations governing foreign workers Stripped bare of the powerful sociocultural economic and legal processes that govern their existence at home these men must recraft their gendered selfhoods identities and sensibilities Using personal and interpretive ethnography the book explores how popular music sports religious beliefs cultural traditions sexual desire and intimacy are refashioned by appropriating cultural and symbolic capital into new cultural experiences It also provides an extensive look at the sudden unexplained nocturnal death syndrome SUNDS among young healthy Thai construction workers in Singapore The author's in depth analyses of migrant social life and male migrant gendered identity negotiating processes provide an invaluable contribution to our understanding of labor transnationalism in the Southeast Asian context Highlights An important contribution to studies of the masculinization of migration Provides ample insight into the lived experience of migrant workers Explores an often forgotten side of labor migration that of sexual intimacy Adds a rich detailed understanding of village transnationalism

Toms and Dees Megan J. Sinnott, 2004-06-30 A vibrant growing and highly visible set of female identities has emerged in Thailand known as tom and dee A tom from tomboy refers to a masculine woman who is sexually involved with a feminine partner or dee from lady The patterning of female same sex relationships into masculine and feminine pairs coupled with the use of English derived terms to refer to them is found throughout East and Southeast Asia Have the forces of capitalism facilitated the dissemination of Western style gay and lesbian identities throughout the developing world as some theories of transnationalism suggest Is the emergence of toms and dees over the past twenty five years a sign that this has occurred in Thailand Megan Sinnott engages these issues by examining the local culture and historical context of female same sex eroticism and female masculinity in Thailand Drawing on a broad spectrum of anthropological literature Sinnott situates Thai tom and dee subculture within the global trend of increasingly hybridized sexual and gender identities

Migration, Gender and Social Justice Thanh-Dam Truong, Des Gasper, Jeff Handmaker, Sylvia I. Bergh, 2013-09-06 This book is the product of a collaborative effort involving partners from Africa Asia Europe and Latin America who were funded by the International Development Research Centre Programme on Women and Migration 2006 2011 The International Institute of Social Studies at Erasmus University Rotterdam spearheaded a project intended to distill and refine the research findings connecting them to broader literatures and interdisciplinary themes The book examines commonalities and differences in the operation of various structures of power gender class race ethnicity generation and their interactions within the institutional domains of intra national and especially inter national migration that produce context specific forms of social injustice Additional contributions have been included so as to cover issues of legal liminality and how the social construction of not only femininity but also masculinity affects all migrants and all women The resulting set of 19 detailed interconnected case studies makes a valuable contribution to reorienting our perceptions and values in the discussions and decision making concerning migration and to raising awareness of key issues in migrants rights All chapters were anonymously peer reviewed This book resulted from a series of projects funded by the International Development Research Centre IDRC Canada The Intimate Economies of Bangkok Ara Wilson, 2004-07-19 Bangkok has been at the frontier of capitalism s drive into the global south for three decades Rapid development has profoundly altered public and private life in Thailand In her provocative study of contemporary commerce in Bangkok Ara Wilson captures the intimate effects of the global economy in this vibrant city The Intimate Economies of Bangkok is a multifaceted portrait of the intertwining of identities relationships and economics during Bangkok s boom years Using innovative case studies of women s and men s participation in a range of modern markets department stores go go bars a popular downtown mall a telecommunications company and the direct sales corporations Amway and Avon Wilson chronicles the powerful expansion of capitalist exchange into further reaches of Thai society She shows how global economies have interacted with local systems to create new kinds of lifestyles ranging from tomboys to corporate tycoons to sex workers Combining feminist theory with classic anthropological understandings of exchange this historically grounded ethnography maps the reverberations of gender sexuality and ethnicity at the hub of Bangkok s modern economy
