Thalidomide And The Power Of The Drug Companies:

Thalidomide and the Power of the Drug Companies Henning Sjöström, Robert Nilsson, 1972 Women, Health and Nation Georgina D. Feldberg, 2003 This book examines North American women's engagement with their health systems and asks to what extent national citizenship has shaped women's health. Authors provide a much needed analysis of the dynamic decades after 1945 when both Canada and the United States began using federal funds to expand health care access and biomedical research and authority reached new heights. Midwest Responsibility for Drug-induced Injury Graham Dukes, Maurice Nelson, Graham Dukes, Mark Mildred, Barbara Swartz, 1998 This edition reflects the evolution of legal standards, professional rules, industrial codes of ethics and court experience in cases involving recompense for medical injury since the 1988 version. While deriving from legal standards of the US, British Commonwealth, European Union and Nordic Council, a chapter is devoted to issues particular to developing countries. Following an introductory chapter on the emergence and recognition of problems relating to drug safety, 20 chapters cover such areas as the legal framework, types of proceedings, evidence and proof, the responsibility of everyone from the government and manufacturer to the prescriber and patient, clinical investigation of drugs, controlled drugs, self-medication, alternative and complementary medicine and vaccines and biologicals. Includes a table of cases and table of conventions, statutes and regulations. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR
