That Various Field for James Schuyler (1923-1991) William Corbett, Geoffrey Young, 1991 Five hundred copies printed on the occasion of two memorial readings for the poet Colophon

The Last Avant-Garde David Lehman, 1999-11-09 A landmark work of cultural history that tells the story of how four young poets John Ashbery Frank O Hara James Schuyler and Kenneth Koch reinvented literature and turned New York into the art capital of the world Greenwich Village New York circa 1951 Every night at a rundown tavern with a magnificent bar called the Cedar Tavern an extraordinary group of painters writers poets and hangers on arrive to drink argue tell jokes fight start affairs and bang out a powerful new aesthetic Their style is playful irreverent tradition shattering and brilliant Out of these friendships and these conversations will come the works of art and poetry that will define New York City as the capital of world culture abstract expressionism and the New York School of Poetry A richly detailed portrait of one of the great movements in American arts and letters The Last Avant Garde covers the years 1948 1966 and focuses on four fast friends the poets Frank O Hara James Schuyler John Ashbery and Kenneth Koch Lehman brings to vivid life the extraordinary creative ferment of the time and place the relationship of great friendship to art and the powerful influence that a group of visual artists especially Jane Freilicher Larry Rivers and Fairfield Porter had on the literary efforts of the New York School The Last Avant Garde is both a definitive and lively view of a quintessentially American aesthetic and an exploration of the dynamics of creativity

The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 1999 Donald Allen's prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto Its republication today complete with poems statements on poetics and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960 Jerome Rothenberg editor of Poems for the Millennium The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment Alan Golding author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry

My Poetics Maureen N. McLane, 2024-05-08 Acclaimed poet and critic Maureen N McLane offers an experimental work of criticism ranging across Romantic and contemporary poetry In My Poetics Maureen N McLane writes as a poet critic theorist and scholar but above all as an impassioned reader Written in an innovative conversable style McLane's essays illuminate her own poetics and suggest more generally all that poetics can encompass Ranging widely from romantic era odes and hymns to anonymous ballads to haikus and haibuns to modernist and contemporary poetries in English My Poetics explores poems as speculative instruments and as ways of registering our very sense of being alive McLane pursues a number of open questions How do poems generate modes for thinking How does rhyme help us measure out thought What is the relation of poetry to its surroundings and how do specific poems activate that relation If as Wallace Stevens wrote poetry is the scholar s art My Poetics flies under a slightly different banner study and criticism are also the poet s art Punctuated with McLane s poems and drawing variously on Hannah Arendt Percy Bysshe Shelley Roland Barthes Bruno Latour and other writers and poets My Poetics is a formally as well as intellectually adventurous work Its artful arrangement of readings and divagations shows us a way to be with poems and poetics

Reading Across the Pacific Robert Dixon, Nicholas Birns, 2010 Reading Across the Pacific is a study of literary and cultural engagement between the United States and Australia from a contemporary interdisciplinary perspective The book examines the relations of the two countries shifting the emphasis from the broad cultural patterns that are often compared to the specific networks interactions and crossings that have characterised Australian literature in the United States and American literature in Australia In the 21st century both American and Australian literatures are experiencing new challenges to the very different paradigms of literary history and criticism each inherited from the 20th century In response to these challenges scholars of both literatures are seizing the opportunity to reassess and reconfigure the conceptual geography of national literary spaces as they are reformed by vectors that evade or exceed them including the transnational the local and the global The essays in Reading Across the Pacific are divided into five sections National literatures and transnationalism Poetry and poetics Literature and popular culture The Cold War and Publishing history and transpacific print cultures

The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg, 2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg s annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg s detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets Doombook
