The Novel in German since 1990 Stuart Taberner, 2011-09-01 Diversity is one of the defining characteristics of contemporary German language literature, not just in terms of the variety of authors writing in German today but also in relation to theme, form, technique, and style. However, common themes emerge: the Nazi past, transnationalism, globalisation, migration, religion, and ethnicity, gender, and sexuality, and identity. This book presents the novel in German since 1990 through a set of close readings, both of international bestsellers including Daniel Kehlmann's Measuring the World and W.G. Sebald's Austerlitz, and of less familiar but important texts such as Yad Kara's Selam Berlin. Each novel discussed in the volume has been chosen on account of its aesthetic quality, its impact, and its representativeness.
