striking images San Francisco's Chinatown Robert W. Bowen, Brenda Young Bowen, 2008 Since the Gold Rush San Francisco's Chinatown has been a destination for sojourners immigrants locals and tourists Despite laws restricting Chinese immigration Chinatown has thrived as a residential and commercial center Designed for tourists and bearing little resemblance to real Chinese cityscapes the streets and buildings have nonetheless been extensively documented in picture postcards as have the residents particularly from the 1890s to 1930s the Golden Age of Postcards The cards relatively few of which survive were kept as visual souvenirs and mementos or were mailed to family and friends Book jacket Postcards from the Baja California Border Daniel D. Arreola, 2021-10-05 Postcards have a magical pull They allow us to see the past through charming relics that allow us to travel back in time Daniel D Arreola's Postcards from the Baja California Border offers a window into the historical and geographical past of storied Mexican border communities Once popular tourist destinations from the 1900s through the 1950s the border communities explored in Postcards from the Baja California Border used to be filled with revelers cabarets curio shops and more The postcards in this book show the bright and dynamic past of California's borderlands while diving deep into the historic and geographic significance of the imagery found on the postcards This form of place study calls attention to how we can see a past through a serial view of places by the nature of repetition and the photographing of the same place over and over again Arreola draws our focus to townscapes or built landscapes of four border towns Tijuana Mexicali Tecate and Algodones during the first half of the twentieth century With an emphasis on the tourist's view of these places this book creates a vivid picture of what life was like for tourists and residents of these towns in the early and mid twentieth century Postcards from the Baja California Border is a rich and fascinating experience one that takes you on a time travel journey through border town histories and geographies while celebrating the visual intrigue of postcards World's Fair, 1989 Rediscovering Art Deco U.S.A. Barbara Baer Capitman, Michael D.
