The Absence Of Myth:

The Absence of Myth Georges Bataille, 2020-05-05 For Bataille the absence of myth had itself become the myth of the modern age In a world that had lost the secret of its cohesion Bataille saw surrealism as both a symptom and a beginning of an attempt to address this loss His writings on this theme are the result of a profound reflection in the wake of World War Two The Absence of Myth is the most incisive study yet made of surrealism insisting on its importance as a cultural and social phenomenon with far reaching consequences Clarifying Bataille's links with the surrealist movement and throwing revealing light on his complex and greatly misunderstood relationship with Andr Breton The Absence of Myth shows Bataille to be a much more radical figure than his postmodernist devotees would have us believe a man who continually tried to extend Marxist social theory a pessimistic thinker but one as far removed from nihilism as can be The Absence of Myth Sophia Heller, 2012-02-01 In this provocative work Sophia Heller challenges the assumption that we cannot be without myth that myth is necessary to vital soulful living Indeed Heller argues we have been living in a world without myth for a long time The Absence of Myth examines the loss of a religious mode of being in the world and demonstrates how theorists who insist on the presence of myth deny its historical end Absence of myth may seem obvious evidenced by our lack of cult and ritual and by our de animated natural world as well as in the emergence of conceptual thought and psychological awareness which could only arise with the dissolution of a prereflective mythic mode of being in the world But what appears to be straightforward becomes complicated when myth is intentionally conflated with thought and reflection usually in the attempt to cultivate a mythic consciousness that aims to restore meaning to life and assuage the spiritual malaise of contemporary culture Myth cannot rest in peace It must be continually unearthed redefined and recontextualized such that modern and postmodern notions of myth are made to substitute for something that has never been experienced only imagined The Absence of Myth Sophia D. Heller, 2003 The Inoperative Community Jean-Luc Nancy, 1991 A collection of five essays of French philosopher Nancy originally published in 1985 86 The Inoperative Community Myth Interpreted Literary Communism Shattered Love and Of Divine Places A paper edition 1924 7 is available for 14 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Epinikion Richard Hamilton, 2019-01-14 No detailed description available for Epinikion New Directions in Contemporary Australian Poetry Dan Disney, Matthew Hall, 2021-10-04 This book sets out to navigate questions of the future of Australian poetry Deliberately designed as a dialogue between poets each of the four clusters presented here Indigeneities Political Landscapes Space Place Materiality Revising an Australian Mythos models how poetic communities in Australia continue to grow in alliance toward certain constellated ideas Exploring the ethics of creative production in a place that continues to position capital over culture property over community each of the twenty essays in this anthology takes the subject of Australian poetry definitively beyond Eurocentrism and white privilege By pushing back against nationalizing mythologies that have over the last 200 years since colonization not only narrativized the logic of instrumentalization but rendered our lands precarious this book asserts new possibilities of creative responsiveness within the Australian sensorium

Eroticizing Aesthetics Tim Themi, 2021-06-03 Bringing together Bataille with Lacan and Nietzsche Tim Themi examines the role of aesthetics implicit in each and how this invokes an erotic process celebrating the real of what is usually excluded from articulation Bataille came to deem eroticism as the standpoint from which to grasp humanity as a whole based on his understanding of our transition to humanity being founded on a series of taboos placed on inner animality An erotic outlet for the latter was historically the aesthetic dimensions of our religions but Bataille's view of how this was gradually diminished has much in keeping with Nietzsche's critique of Christian Platonic dualism and Lacan's of the desexualised Good of Western metaphysics Building from these often surprising proximities Themi closely examines Bataille's many interventions into the history of aesthetics from his confrontations with Breton's surrealism to his own novels and encounter with the animal cave paintings of Lascaux radically re illuminating the corollary phenomena of Dionysos in Nietzsche's philosophy and the jouissance enjoyment of transgression in the psychoanalysis of Lacan A new ethical criterion for aesthetic works and creations on this basis becomes possible

Community, Myth and Recognition in Twentieth-Century French Literature and Thought Nikolaj Lübecker, 2011-10-20 Taking as its point of departure the notion of community in mid twentieth century French literature and thought this ambitious study seeks to uncover the ways in which Breton Bataille Sartre and Barthes used literature and art to engage with the question of reconceptualizing society In exploring the relevance these writings hold for contemporary debates about community Lubecker argues for the continuing social importance of literary studies Throughout the book he suggests that literature and art are privileged fields for confronting some of the anti social desires situated at the periphery of human rationality The authors studied put to work the concepts of Thanatos sado masochism and self sacrifice they also write more poetically about man's attraction to Silence the Night and the Neutral Many sociological discourses on the question of community tend to marginalize the drives inherent within these concepts Lubecker argues it is essential to take these drives into account when theorising the question of community otherwise they may return in the atavistic form of myths Moreover if handled with care and attention they can prove to be a resource

Christianity and Heavy Metal as Impure Sacred within the Secular West Jason Lief, 2017-06-13 This book explores the symbolic connections between Christianity and Heavy Metal music in the context of the secular West Heavy Metal uses symbols and imagery taken from Christianity even if the purpose is to critique religion This usage creates a positive connection with an interpretation of Christianity as a form of cultural critique Given that Metal and Christianity are associated with Western culture this book explores how Christianity and Heavy Metal function within the context of secularity as a form of ideological critique Using the ideas of Emile Durkheim Max Weber and Charles Taylor as a starting point this book explores the religious nature of secularism in the West interpreted in the immanent processes of politics and economics In this connect both Christianity and Heavy Metal provide a cultural critique through images of death the grotesque and sacrifice By bringing this religious interpretation of secularism into conversation with the ideas of Georges Batailles Slavoj i ek and J rgen Moltmann this book will demonstrate the positive relationship between Christianity and Heavy Metal Imagination in Religion LIT Verlag,2021-01-07 Religion would be impossible without imagination Imagination provides content that otherwise escapes discourse and perception Thus it opens up a productive realm for creative involvement that keeps religion from sinking into trivialities or abstractions The contributions in the present volume explore in various ways potentialities and problems linked to imagination s role in the context of religion The book challenges readers to think again and think differently about imagination in religion which in itself involves the power of imagination The book opens up fresh perspectives on the interactive dynamics between imagination and various faculties or dimensions of life Imagination might be involved in thinking perceiving contemplation and in practices The contributors to the volume are all members of the Nordic Society for the Philosophy of Religion Espen Dahl Professor of Systematic Theology The Arctic University of Norway Troms Jan Olav Henriksen Professor of Philosophy of Religion MF Norwegian School of Theology Religion and Society Oslo Marius T Mjaaland Professor of Philosophy of Religion Faculty of Theology University of Oslo Norway
