Abuse of Diplomatic Privileges and the Balance between Immunities and the Duty to Respect the Local Laws and Regulations under the Vienna Conventions: The Recent Indian Experience

S. Subramanian¹

Abstract: The successful adoption of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations is hailed as the 'landmark of the highest significance in the codification of international law'. It represented the first significant codification of any international instrument since the United Nations was established. However, despite the codification of the above rules, which is largely based on the pre-existing customary international law, the scope of diplomatic protection was not free from issues and controversies. In recent times... Show more
