The Habit Of Happiness Exploring The Beatitudes:

Life in the Image of God Ronald C. Calhoun, 2013-09-06 The King has come The God of love planned reconciliation and transformation for the people he created He planned liberation from bondage for all creation through the life death and resurrected life of his Son Jesus Christ Jesus the King has come He has inaugurated the kingdom The Sermon on the Mount Matt 57 is the constitution of that kingdom The constitution is intended to make Christlike disciples The central dynamic of the constitution is godlike love and is based on his grace The Sermon begins with the essence of character which is the foundation of all relationships and conduct Who we are determines the influence we have and controls our conduct Our conduct is based on right relationships with God others self and the material world The Sermon is practical dealing with every aspect of life Our relationship with God is to be one of reverence and self discipline Our relationship to possessions calls for rejection of slavery to those possessions and to worry In relationship to self we must avoid destructive criticism and exercise discernment Many areas are discussed in our relationship to others such as murder sex retaliation and more Join me in the study of the kingdom constitution as it reveals how to live life in the image of God All who will may become a part of the kingdom by offering full allegiance to the King and by living life by the rule of godlike love Catalog of Copyright Entries. Morals under the Gun James H. Toner, 2021-10-21 James Toner argues that the cardinal virtues are and must be the core values of the military By embracing these values the profession of arms serves as a moral compass in an increasingly confusing age Building upon a bold introduction which includes what many will regard as a surprising view of military ethics Toner examines the four cardinal virtues wisdom courage temperance and justice and places each in the context of a compelling case study from recent U S military history He discusses the Flinn Case the Lavelle Affair a B 52 crash in Washington State and the courageous actions of Hugh Thompson after My Lai Morals Under the Gun connects ethics and moral theology with the armed services demonstrating that the task of preserving virtue both personal and professional is a noble if imperfectible task

Aquinas, Natural Law, and Social Ontology Ana Marta González, 2025-07-22 This volume explores the connections between Thomas Aquinas doctrine of natural law and contemporary social thought It aims to make explicit the basic notions of Thomas Aquinas social ontology and to show how key concepts from sociology economics and political science relate to his ethics and social thought Social ontology is a growing area of contemporary social theory Scholars in this area reflect on the ontological status of society and the various realities that make up the social realm However Aquinas scholars rarely use the term social ontology instead resorting to his natural law to examine social life This volume argues that the social thought of Thomas Aquinas including his natural law theory implies a social ontology Aquinas adopts a clear position on the ontological uniqueness of human beings the intentional structure of human action and the existence of informal social relations and institutional realities that shape human society This volume shows how these views can be reconstructed into a coherent social ontology Its chapters are divided into five thematic parts Part 1 offers conceptual elements to bridge the gap between Aquinas and contemporary social theory Part 2 considers the metaphysics and theology implicit in Aquinas social ontology Part 3 focuses on the way this ontology is at work in his account of the common good and his approach to natural law Part 4 expands this reflection to economics Finally Part 5 addresses legal and political issues such as political polarization family law and the ethics of war Aquinas Natural Law and Social Ontology will appeal to scholars and graduate students interested in the thought of Thomas
