Slave Narratives United States. Work Projects Administration, 2019-11-21 The anthology Slave Narratives compiled by the United States Work Projects Administration serves as a potent archive of firsthand accounts from former slaves captured in a period when America was grappling with its legacy of slavery This collection utilizes a raw and authentic literary style presenting unfiltered oral histories that reveal the lived experiences struggles and aspirations of African Americans in the antebellum South The narratives are not merely testimonies they are profound reflections of resilience revealing the complexities of their experiences against the backdrop of the emerging civil rights movement marking a crucial moment in American literary history The Work Projects Administration an initiative during the Great Depression sought to preserve American history through various artistic and literary endeavors This project not only reflects the WPA's commitment to documenting the voices of marginalized populations but also underscores the importance of narrative in understanding the societal structures of the time The narratives were collected through interviews with individuals who had lived in bondage highlighting the cultural and historical significance of their stories thus providing a vital contribution to American historiography I highly recommend Slave Narratives to anyone interested in a deeper understanding of American history literature and the African American experience This book is an essential resource for scholars and lay readers alike as it invites readers to engage with the voices of the past fostering empathy and a greater understanding of enduring societal issues

Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Kentucky Narratives United States Work Projects Administration,2020-09-28 Uncle Dan tells me he was born May 5 1858 at the Abe Wheeler place near Spoonsville now

known as Nina about nine miles due east from Lancaster Mother whose name was Lucinda Wheeler belonged to the Wheeler family My father was a slave of Dan Bogie s at Kirksville in Madison County and I was named for him My mother s people were born in Garrard County as far as I know I had one sister born in 1860 who is now dead and is buried not far from Lancaster Marse Bogie owned about 200 acres of land in the eastern section of the county and as far as I can remember there were only four slaves on the place We lived in a one room cabin with a loft above and this cabin was an old fashioned one about hundred yards from the house We lived in one room with one bed in the cabin The one bed was an old fashioned high post corded bed where my father and mother slept My sister and me slept in a trundle bed made like the big bed except the posts were made smaller and was on rollers so it could be rolled under the big bed There was also a cradle made of a wooden box with rockers nailed on and my mother told me that she rocked me in that cradle when I was a baby She used to sit and sing in the evening She carded the wool and spun yarn on the old spinning wheel My grandfather was a slave of Talton Embry whose farm joined the Wheeler farm He made shingles with a steel drawing knife that had a wooden handle He made these shingles in Mr Embry s yard I do not remember my grandmother and I didn t have to work in slave days because my mother and father did all the work except the heavy farm work My Mistus used to give me my winter clothes My shoes were called brogans My old master had shoes made He would put my foot on the floor and mark around it for the measure of my shoes Most of the cooking was in an oven in the yard over the bed of coals Baked possum and ground hog in the oven stewed rabbits fried fish and fired bacon called streaked meat all kinds of vegetables boiled cabbage pone corn bread and sorghum molasses Old folks would drink coffee but chillun would drink milk especially butter milk

tin pail marked with his name Water would be sent out in a barrel mounted on an ox cart Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Kansas Narratives United States Work Projects Administration,2020-09-28 My name is Clayton Holbert and I am an ex slave I am eighty six years old I was born and raised in Linn County Tennessee My master s name was Pleasant Ples Holbert My master had a fairly large plantation he had I imagine around one hundred slaves I was working the fields during the wind up of the Civil War They always had a man in the field to teach the small boys to work and I was one of the boys I was learning to plant corn etc My father brother and uncle went to war on the Union side We raised corn barley and cotton and produced all of our living on the plantation There was no such thing as going to town to buy things All of our clothing was homespun our socks were knitted and everything We had our looms and made our own suits we also had reels and we carved spun and knitted We always wore yarn socks for winter which we made It didn t get cold in the winter in Tennessee just a little frost was all We fixed all of our cotton and wool ourselves For our meat we used to kill fifteen twenty or fifty and sometimes a hundred hogs We usually had hickory It was considered the best for smoking meat when we butchered Our meat we had then was the finest possible It had a lot more flavor than that which you get now If a person ran out of meat he would go over to his neighbor s house and borrow or buy meat we didn t think about going to town When we wanted fresh meat we or some of the neighbors would kill a hog or sheep and would divide this and then when we butchered we would give them part of ours People were more friendly then then they are now They have almost lost respect for each other Now if you would give your neighbor something they would never think of paying it back You could also borrow wheat or whatever you wanted and you could pay it back whenever you thrashed Slave Narratives Work Projects Administration,2022-10-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Slave Narratives Work Projects Administration,2004-12 Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Indiana Narratives United States Work Projects Administration,2020-09-28 George W Arnold was born April 7 1861 in Bedford County Tennessee He was the property of Oliver P Arnold who owned a large farm or plantation in Bedford county His mother was a native of Rome Georgia where she remained until twelve years of age when she was sold at auction Oliver Arnold bought her and he also purchased her three brothers and one uncle The four negroes were taken along with other slaves from Georgia to Tennessee where they were put to work on the Arnold plantation On this plantation George W Arnold was born and the child was allowed to live in a cabin with his relatives and declares that he never heard one of them speak an unkind word about Master Oliver Arnold or any member of his family Happiness and contentment and a reasonable amount of food and clothes seemed to be all we needed said the now white haired man Only a limited memory of Civil War days is retained by the old man but the few events recalled are vividly described by him Mother my young brother my sister and I were walking along one day I don t remember where we had started but we passed under the fort at Wartrace A battle was in progress and a large cannon was fired above us and we watched the huge ball sail through the air and saw the smoke of the cannon pass over our heads We poor children were almost scared to death but our mother held us close to her and tried to comfort us The next morning after we were safely at home we were proud we had seen that much of the great battle and our mother told us the war was to give us freedom Did your family rejoice when they were set free was the natural question to ask Uncle George I cannot say that they were happy as it broke up a lot of real friendships and scattered many families Mother had a great many pretty quilts and a lot of bedding After the negroes were set free Mars Arnold told us we could all go and make ourselves homes so we started out each of the grown persons loaded with great bundles of bedding clothing and personal belongings We walked all the way to Wartrace to try to find a home and some way to make a living
