Some Light On Christian Education:

Some Light on Christian Education James W. Deuink, 1984-01-01

Christian Education and the Local Church

James DeForest Murch, 1958 This book helps the local church re evaluate its program of Christian education After nearly 2000 years of history it is pertinent to ask whether the church school is still true to the principles of the Master Teacher and of the apostolic church whether its methods of education and their ultimate results are distinctly and peculiarly Christian and whether the local church is efficiently reaching humanity with Christian teaching The author faces these questions from the viewpoint of one who believes that the Bible is inspired that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and that the New Testament church is the pattern church He evaluates modern educational thought and practice in the searching light of Christian history and principles and draws some constructive conclusions The section on methods present a church school for today which offers all the best of modern education in a pattern thoroughly true to the Scriptures Christian Education and the

Emerging Church Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos

A Theology for Christian Education James Riley Estep, Michael J. Anthony, Gregg R. Allison, 2008 A Theology for Christian Education written by dedicated professors of Christian Explain and defend the rationale for the influence of theology in Christian educational theory Describe the process of forming a theologically informed theory of Christian education Provide educational insights from a theological rubric and Present the praxis approach theology theory informed practice for teaching and Christian education

Christian Education Robert E. Clark, Lin Johnson, Allyn K. Sloat, 1991-10-22 Whether in the home or in the church or in a Christian school the challenge of contemporary Christian educators is to meet the academic needs of students while remaining unswerving in adherence to biblical principles Christian Education Foundations for the Future introduces you to the basics of a healthy Christian education program then takes you beyond showing you how to develop a fresh innovative Christian education program that will revitalize your church home or school Christian Education, 1923

Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A.

Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in
