Black Lives in the English Archives, 1500-1677 Imtiaz Habib, 2017-05-15 Containing an urgently needed archival database of historical evidence this volume includes both a consolidated presentation of the documentary records of black people in Tudor and Stuart England and an interpretive narrative that confirms and significantly extends the insights of current theoretical excursus on race in early modern England Here for the first time Imtiaz Habib collects the scattered references to black people whether from Africa India or America in sixteenth and seventeenth century England and arranges them into a systematic chronological descriptive index He offers an extended historical and theoretical interpretation of the records in six chapters which serve as an introductory guide to the index even as they articulate a specific argument about the meaning of the records Both the archival information and interpretive scholarship provide a strong framework from which future historical debates on race in early modern England can proceed

Different Speeds, Same Furies Perry Anderson, 2022-11-08 There are few writers about whom opinions diverge so widely as Anthony Powell whose Dance to the Music of Time sequence is one of the most ambitious literary constructions in the English language In Different Speeds Same Furies Perry Anderson measures Powell s achievement against Marcel Proust s celebrated In Search of Lost Time The literature on Dance is a drop in the ocean compared to that on Proust Yet in construction of plot and depiction of character Anderson ranks Powell above him How much do particular advantages of this kind matter and why is Powell an odd man out in English letters At once so similar and dissimilar the intricate retrospectives of the two novelists on bohemia and Society upbringing and mortality relationships and personality invite interrelated judgements The closing chapters of Different Speeds Same Furies reach beyond their handlings of time to chart the historical novel from Waverley to Underworld and the breakthrough in epistolary fiction of Montesquieu s Persian Letters held together by what its author described as a secret chain which remains as it were invisible

Anthony Powell Hilary Spurling, 2018-11-06 The author of the award winning Matisse A Life gives us the definitive biography of writer Anthony Powell and takes us deep into the heart of twentieth century London s literary life Insightful lively and enthralling this biography is as much a brilliant tapestry of a seminal era in London s literary life as it is a revelation of an iconic literary figure Best known for his twelve volume comic masterpiece A Dance to the Music of Time the prolific writer and critic Anthony Powell 1905 2000 kept company between the two world wars with rowdy hard up writers and painters and painters models in the London where Augustus John and Wyndham Lewis loomed large He counted Evelyn Waugh and Henry Green among his lifelong friends and his circle included the Sitwells Graham Greene George Orwell Philip Larkin and Kingsley Amis Drawing on letters diaries and interviews Hilary Spurling herself a longtime friend of Powell s as well as an award winning biographer has produced a fresh and powerful portrait of the man and his times Religions and the European Union Philippe Guillaume,2020-02-27 The author explains the bi millennial religious trends that led to the founding of the European Union culminating in Pope Pius XII s christmas speech 1944 After having saved a hundred thousand jews the Pope used his speech to lay the foundations for what would one day be the European Union He also changed an old Vatican rule and created christian democratic parties It was these parties with help from the reconciled socialists parties that provided the forces that would go on to build the European Union a supranational organisation that has brought seventy years of economic development and peace Soft Ferdinand Mount,2025-09-11 An erudite immensely entertaining book Mount makes for a delightful guide Literary Review A sweeping tour of emotion and culture that spans centuries from renowned author and essayist Ferdinand Mount Whatever we think we feel you can be sure that the past has had a part to play in it In Soft Ferdinand Mount tells the millennium long history of emotion through vivid snapshots masterly storytelling and strange and wonderful historical anecdotes Revealing all the weird and wonderful ways people in the past expressed their grief and joy Mount explores the shifting importance societies have placed on empathy for the misfortunes of others Each seismic moment Mount argues from the French Revolution to Civil Rights has had a corresponding sentimental revolution that has fuelled great political turning points and come to define human civilization But during this long history powerful feelings have frequently come under attack No one wants to be accused of being sentimental its detractors call it soppy effeminate and populist the stuff of soap operas and pop songs The Reformation tried to stamp out excessive emotion the Victorians resolutely maintained their stiff upper lips and no one loathed sentimentality more than the modernists and yet today Mount argues it is not the stoics who are ruling the roost we are living in an age of emotion From the Occitan poets of the 12th century to Paul McCartney songs and modern debates around woke this is a witty insight into the story of emotions and the way they have swayed human history
