Somebody Stand Up And Sing:

Somebody's Someone Regina Louise, 2025-05-01 In this poignant and heart wrenching true story Regina Louise recounts her childhood search for connection in the face of abuse neglect and rejection What happens to a child when her own parents reject her and sit idly by as others abuse her In this poignant heart wrenching debut work Regina Louise recounts her childhood search for someone to feel connected to A mother she has never known but long fantasized about deposited her and her half sister at the same group home that she herself fled years before When another resident beats Regina so badly that she can barely move she knows that she must leave this terrible place the only home she knows Thus begins Regina's fight to survive utterly alone at the age of 10 A stint living with her mother and her abusive boyfriend is followed by a stay with her father's lily white wife and daughters who ignore her before turning to abuse and ultimately kicking her out of the house Regina then tries everything in her search for someone to care for her and to care about from taking herself to jail to escaping countless foster homes to be near her beloved counselor Written in her distinctive and unique voice Regina's story offers an in depth look at the life of a child who no one wanted From her initial flight to her eventual discovery of love your heart will go out to Regina's younger self and you'll cheer her on as she struggles to be Somebody's Someone The Fellowship of Song Ginette Dunn, 2015-12-22 Originally published in 1980 Song is perhaps the strongest form of traditional culture Its vigour and energy represent the power of the community from which it springs This book focuses on traditional singing in two small English villages It studies in detail an activity which goes to the core of the communal life in any village and demonstrates how song becomes the lifeblood of the traditions of rural life In many ways traditional singing is highly subversive because its practice is an affirmation of community and a denial of the fragmentation of modern society The songs sung those remembered the singers now dead whose lives are recalled each time an old favourite is performed all connect the present with the past The primary aesthetic concern within these singing traditions is that a man should sing whatever the objective quality of his performance and a song should tell a good story The individual singer assumes a special role in performance since he becomes spokesman for a group and gives voice not only to personal but also to social concerns dynamics and emotions The New American Poetry of Engagement Ann Keniston, Jeffrey Gray, 2012-07-31 This anthology of poetry collects 21st century American works by both established and emerging poets that deal with the public events government policies ecological and political threats economic uncertainties and large scale violence that have largely defined the century to date But these 138 poems by 50 poets do not simply describe lament or bear witness to contemporary events they also explore the linguistic temporal and imaginative problems involved in doing so In this way the anthology offers a comprehensive look at contemporary American poetry demonstrating that poets are moving at once toward a new engagement with public concerns and toward a focus on the problems of representation A detailed introduction by the editors along with poetical statements by many of the poets add depth and context to a book that will appeal to anyone interested in the state and evolution of contemporary American poetry Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Sing Her Name Rosalyn Story,2022-04-12 A beautiful and triumphant novel in which a talented woman works to reconcile her sense of family loyalty with her fidelity to her own considerable gifts Foreword Review starred review Brilliantly talented Celia DeMille is a nineteenth century concert artist who has garnered fame and sung all over the world But prejudice bars her from achieving her place in history as one of the world s greatest singers and she dies in poverty and obscurity In twenty first century New Orleans Eden Malveaux a thirty something waitress with a beautiful but untutored voice is the sole guardian of her seventeen year old brother Eden struggled for years to make ends meet and protect her wayward brother After a hurricane displaces them to New York City Eden seeks safe refuge not only from the ensuing flood but also to hide her brother from the law When Eden receives a box containing a hundred year old scrapbook and a mysterious and valuable gold pendant necklace belonging to Celia DeMille her life is forever altered As Eden explores the artifacts of Celia DeMille s extraordinary life curiosity grows into obsession then into an inspiration that propels Eden into a world she never dreamed But just as she is poised to make her mark on the world stage her brother s dangerous choices catch up with them To face the promise of her future Eden must first reconcile years of regrets and leave behind the guilt of the past and perhaps even the brother she loves Uplifting Story reveals a knack for natural dialogue and writes movingly both about music and the devastation caused by Katrina The Dallas Morning News This truly is a novel that sings Booklist The News from Poems Jeffrey Gray,Ann Keniston,2016-09-08 The News from Poems examines a subgenre of recent American poetry that closely engages with contemporary political and social issues This engaged poetry features a range of aesthetics and focuses on public topics from climate change to the aftermath of recent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq to the increasing corporatization of U S culture The News from Poems brings together newly commissioned essays by eminent poets and scholars of poetry and serves as a companion volume to an earlier anthology of engaged poetry compiled by the editors Essays by Bob Perelman Steven Gould Axelrod Tony Hoagland Eleanor Wilner and others reveal how recent poetry has redefined our ideas of politics authorship identity and poetics The volume showcases the diversity of contemporary American poetry discussing mainstream and experimental poets including some whose work has sparked significant controversy These and other poets of our time the volume suggests are engaged not only with public events and topics but also with new ways of imagining subjectivity otherness and poetry itself A Little Laughter a Few Good Friends and a Whole Lot of God's Grace , Jazzwomen Wayne Enstice,Janis Stockhouse,2004 Personal interviews with women jazz artists including Marian McPartland Abbey Lincoln Cassandra Wilson and Diana Krall Between 1995 and 2000 Wayne Enstice and Janis Stockhouse interviewed dozens of women jazz instrumentalists and vocalists Jazzwomen collects 21 of the most fascinating interviews The Mongolic Languages Juha Janhunen,2006-01-27 Once the rulers of the largest land empire that has ever existed on earth the historical Mongols of Chinggis Khan left a linguistic heritage which today
