

Rev Wallace, who was in Singleton for some years. In one of Kells letters she mentioned if so you might ask ~~her~~
to remember me very
kindly when she writes.
I have volunteered for the serial corps my name has been submitted
and you have heard nothing definite. I had a letter from Tom
a few days ago she was complaining of the cold otherwise ~~there~~
not complaints.
Well Mother I have
no more news so will say goodnight with much love to all.

War Letters Andrew Carroll, 2008-06-23 In 1998 Andrew Carroll founded the Legacy Project with the goal of remembering Americans who have served their nation and preserving their letters for posterity Since then over 50 000 letters have poured in from around the country Nearly two hundred of them comprise this amazing collection including never before published letters that appear in the new afterword Here are letters from the Civil War World War I World War II Korea the Cold War Vietnam the Persian Gulf war Somalia and Bosnia dramatic eyewitness accounts from the front lines poignant expressions of love for family and country insightful reflections on the nature of warfare Amid the voices of common soldiers marines airmen sailors nurses journalists spies and chaplains are letters by such legendary figures as Gen William T Sherman Clara Barton Theodore Roosevelt Ernie Pyle Gen Douglas MacArthur Julia Child Gen Norman

Schwarzkopf and Gen Benjamin O Davis Sr Collected in War Letters they are an astonishing historical record a powerful tribute to those who fought and a celebration of the enduring power of letters Letters from a War Hero Robert C. Linnell,2005-03 I have to laugh at the bunk they spread all over the newspapers Every time somebody hears a rumor or gets an idea he flashes it out on the front page in huge black print The papers are full of speculation as to what will happen where and when It sounds to me as though the home front thought the surrender of Italy practically ended the war We received the news over the radio while underway for the invasion We took it with little excitement We had been expecting it any day and also knew that the fighting would still be plenty tough I guess the people at home thought that would mean a victory much through Italy I would say that it was nearer another Dunkirk The Germans still have lots of fight left in them and the war still has lots of months left in it an excerpt of a letter from Ensign R C Linnell to his parents October 3 1943 This endearing collection of letters written before during and after some of most intense invasions of World War II provides insight into a bygone era Letters from a War Hero is a priceless account of American history entwined with a beautiful love story

McClure's Magazine ,1917 Remembering War J. M. Winter,2006-01-01 This is a masterful volume on remembrance and war in the twentieth century Jay Winter locates the fascination with the subject of memory within a long term trajectory that focuses on the Great War Images languages and practices that appeared during and after the two world wars focused on the need to acknowledge the victims of war and shaped the ways in which future conflicts were imagined and remembered At the core of the memory boom is an array of collective meditations on war and the victims of war Winter says The book begins by tracing the origins of contemporary interest in memory then describes practices of remembrance that have linked history and memory particularly in the first half of the twentieth century The author also considers theaters of memory film television museums and war crimes trials in which the past is seen through public representations of memories The book concludes with reflections on the significance of these practices for the cultural history of the twentieth century as a whole
