The Cigarette Book Chris Harrald, Fletcher Watkins, 2010-11-01 From A is for Aardvark We re not allowed to tell you anything about Winston cigarettes so here s a stuffed aardvark to Z is for Zippo the iconic American lighter The Cigarette Book is the ultimate souvenir and celebration of the dying art of smoking Encyclopedic in both layout and range this is an ideal consolation gift for those who have stopped an ideal aide de memoire for those who might and a defiant puff of libertarian brilliance for those who won t Celebrate the Hollywood age of smoking when film stars lit up with glamorous abandon Witty illustrated collectible and up to date All smokers know that cigarettes are dangerous Each one is a dance with death and the defiant smoker will say that therein lies its charm So each puff is an existential gesture an assertion of choice and life in the face of death One day the last cigarette on earth will be smoked One final puff will be sent heaven bound leaving a lingering evanescent smoke ring And the wise of this world will rejoice Because logic demands that mankind is rid of this pernicious poison And wasn t that well known logician Adolf Hitler the most virulent opponent of cigarette smoking in the last century Until then read this book

Can't Buy My Love Jean Kilbourne, 2012-06-26 When was the last time you felt this comfortable in a relationship An ad for sneakers You can love it without getting your heart broken An ad for a car Until I find a real man I ll settle for a real smoke A woman in a cigarette ad Many advertisements these days make us feel as if we have an intimate even passionate relationship with a product But as Jean Kilbourne points out in this fascinating and shocking expos the dreamlike promise of advertising always leaves us hungry for more We can never be satisfied because the products we love cannot love us back Drawing upon her knowledge of psychology media and women s issues Kilbourne offers nothing less than a new understanding of a ubiquitous phenomenon in our culture The average American is exposed to over 3 000 advertisements a day and watches three years worth of television ads over the course of a lifetime Kilbourne paints a gripping portrait of how this barrage of advertising drastically affects young people especially girls by offering false promises of rebellion connection and control She also offers a surprising analysis of the way advertising creates and then feeds an addictive mentality that often continues throughout adulthood Rules, Magic and Instrumental Reason Berel Dov Lerner,2013-12-16 This book offers a systematic and critical discussion of Peter Winch s writings on the philosophy of the social sciences The author points to Winch s tendency to over emphasize the importance of language and communication and his insufficient attention to the role of practical technological activities in human life and society It also offers an appendix devoted to the controversy between the anthropologists Marshall Sahlins and Gananath Obeyesekere regarding Captain James Cook s Hawaiian adventures Essential reading for those studying the development of philosophy in the twentieth century this book will also be of great interest to anthropologists sociologists scholars of religion and all those with an interest in the relationship between philosophy and the social sciences Cigarette Safety Study Act United States.
