

A man and a woman in early 20th-century attire are shown from the chest up, standing by the ocean. The man, on the left, has dark hair and is wearing a light blue shirt, a dark tie, and a brown pinstriped vest. He is looking down at his hands, which are holding a small, dark object. The woman, on the right, is wearing a large, wide-brimmed straw hat with a pink ribbon. She is also looking down at the man's hands. She is wearing a high-collared, light-colored dress with a brown vest over it. The background is a clear blue sky and a calm blue ocean.

Life, Death, and Somewhere In Between is the deeply personal story of one man's journey through some of the roughest obstacles in his life. The author shares the sights, sounds, thoughts, and emotions that resulted from life-altering events, including the deaths of his sixty-three-year-old mother and eighteen-year-old daughter within eight weeks of each other, the near death of his twenty-four-year-old daughter four years later, how performing CPR on a seventeen-year-old male profoundly affected his life, and the author's own out-of-body experience as a teenager due to a farm accident. Life, Death, and Somewhere In Between is the story of how it all ties together and shows that ultimately LIFE WINS.
