Perspectives on Contemporary Literature David Hershberg, 2021-12-15 In all parts of the world and in every age many of the greatest works of literature have been shaped or inspired by the swirl of historical events The wars holocausts and mushroom clouds of our own era haunt the pages of many twentieth century writers events of the past even the remote past also inspire many authors though their work is contemporary in every way And if we agree with the poet Czeslaw Milosz that historicity may reveal itself in a detail of architecture in the shaping of a landscape we come to recognize that our understanding of a given poem or novel can often be deepened by a reading from this point of view The essayists in Literature and the Historical Process explore the ways in which history and literature are intertwined in the works of a number of twentieth century writers These probing critical readings from the historical point of view not only enlighten us about the works under consideration but especially when taken together enrich our understanding of the literary impulse itself In Nature History and Art in Elizabeth Bishop's Brazil January 1 1502 for example Barbara Page shows how Bishop used and rearranged knowledge derived from her study of Brazil's history Page's somewhat feminist reading may surprise those who find Bishop's poetic persona hard to identify Among the other authors considered are Jorge Luis Borges Michel de Ghelderode Elizabeth Bowen Rose Macauley Anthony Burgess Hugo von Hofmannsthal Cesare Pavese and Czeslaw Milosz

Reading Postwar British and Irish Poetry Michael Thurston, Nigel Alderman, 2013-11-05 Combining detailed explorations of both mainstream and experimental poets with a clear historical and literary overview Reading Postwar British and Irish Poetry offers readers at all levels an ideal guide to the rich body of poetic works published in Britain and Ireland over the last half century Features detailed discussions of individual poems that are widely available in anthologies and selected poems volumes Pays explicit attention to how to read the poems focusing on language and form and the institutional conditions of literary possibility in which poets worked Includes poets of all types and styles from throughout the post war period including canonical and mainstream poets alongside experimental poets women and poets of color The All-Sustaining Air Michael O'Neill, 2007-09-27 Drawn from Shelley's Prometheus Unbound the title of this book suggests the cultural and literary persistence of the Romantic in the work of many British American and Irish poets since 1900 Allowing for and celebrating the multiple even fractured nature of Romantic legacies Michael O'Neill focuses on the creative impact of Romantic poetry on twentieth and twenty first century poetry Individual chapters embrace numerous authors and texts and span different cultures the intention is not the forlorn hope of completeness but the wish to open up possibilities and intersections and there is a strong sense throughout of poetry serving as a subtle and profound form of literary criticism A wide ranging introduction analyses the persistence of the Romantic in poets such as Ted Hughes Wilfred Owen Robert Frost Denise Levertov Robert Lowell and others and sets the scene for subsequent discussions Chapter 1 dwells on images of air using these to understand the efforts of a number of twentieth century poets to sustain Romanticism or forms of it Chapters 2 and 3 focus on Yeats and Eliot respectively the latter apparently shunning the Romantic the former seeming to embrace it but both responding with subtlety and individuality to the Romantic bequest Chapter 4 argues that Wallace Stevens's Esthétique du Mal should be read as a work that illuminates the writings of the major Romantics especially about evil and suffering Chapter 5 discusses the work of W H Auden and Stephen Spender exploring the complex response of both poets to the Romantic Auden complicated in his post Romantic attitudes Spender daring in his attempts to renew a Romantic lyricism in a post Romantic age Chapter 6 returns to a broader sweep as it investigates the response of a range of contemporary poets from Northern Ireland including Heaney Kavanagh Mahon and Carson to Romantic poetry Chapter 7 sustains the Irish connection discussing Paul Muldoon's dealings with Byron and other Romantics especially in Madoc And Chapter 8 focuses on Geoffrey Hill's tense and tensed relations with Romantic poetry and on Roy Fisher's sense of being a gutted Romantic in order to illustrate two diverse ways of being post Romantic in contemporary culture Speaking to You Natalie Pollard, 2012-08-30 Speaking to You explores the work of four important poets writing post 1960 Don Paterson Geoffrey Hill W S Graham and C H Sisson in order to show how contemporary British poetry's creative handling of addresses to you are key in its interactions with readers critics lovers editors fellow poets and deceased forebears
