The Awakening Willie G. Demings, 2012-02-25 My writings came from my Road to Damascus whereas the Lord opened my eyes and delivered me from myself and the enemy and inspired me to share The word he freely blessed me with to all who wish to receive it the Collaboration is from the word of god and from everyday people and conversations from those who are hurting and are in need of a word Of which I call planting a seed for the bible says One planteth one watereth but god give the increase remember if one member suffers All suffers when one member rejoice all rejoice Willie G Demings Eye of the Whale Dick Russell, 2001 Eye of the Whale focuses on one great whale in particular the coastal traveling California gray whale Gray whales make the longest migration of any mammal from the lagoons of Baja California to the feeding grounds of the Bering Strait between Alaska and Siberia nearly 6 000 miles That the gray whale exists today is nothing short of miraculous Whaling fleets twice massacred the species to near extinction first during the nineteenth century and again during the early part of the twentieth century BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Junk Mail Sophia Tzvetanov, Junk Mail is just as its name suggests an assortment of odds and ends This collection of 37 poems explores the thoughts and feelings that flicker across youth and adolescence the time when one feels too old for innocence yet too young to be taken seriously It consists of free flowing verse imaginative ramblings and an omnipresent fondness for the color green Judith Kristen, 2004-09-01 This book is one woman s report from the front lines of digital dating Grace Anderson a novelist with grown children an ex husband an age beginning with the number 4 and an acute case of writer s block turns to cyberspace for diversion inspiration She finds it in the form of a bright charming articulate obviously accomplished man she meets in a chat room late one evening The two of them begin to build a relationship the old fashioned way with their words and their imaginations When her cyberspace swain turns three dimensional the good news is that he is indeed bright charming articulate obviously accomplished and better yet drop dead handsome The more interesting news is that he is a Princeton University Wunderkind twenty eight years her junior younger than both of Grace s sons So just what happens when the perfect love meets a most socially unacceptable age gap The road to finding that out will captivate you The storyline is timely and the romance timeless A True Love

BYbriankery, 2024-03-13 Poetry is more than the written word it is more than the language of love Poetry is not just the expression of emotions it is the language of elicited emotion It is not just a method by which we express our emotions or our devotion it is a language by which others receive it and experience it High brow people will tell you that a well written poem has met a criteria for grammar use of metaphor punctuation and even iambic pentameter I say to you that a well written poem is the one that stirs your emotions good or bad and a great one is one that stirs your soul if you have ever read something that has actually made you laugh or cry then that was well written I hope that what you find inside stirs in you because everything within I wrote because of her to stir her like all that she stirred in me Empty Spaces Jordan

Abel, 2024-02-06 A hypnotic and mystifying exploration of land and legacy investigating what it means to be an intergenerational Indigenous survivor of Residential Schools Jordan Abel's new work grows out of the groundbreaking visual expression in his recently published NISHGA a book that combined nonfiction with photography concrete poetry and literary inquiry Whereas NISHGA integrated descriptions of the landscape from James Fenimore Cooper's settler classic The Last of the Mohicans into visual pieces Empty Spaces reinscribes those words on the page itself and in doing so subjects them to bold rewritings Reimagining the nineteenth century text from the contemporary perspective of an urban Nisga a person whose relationship to land and traditional knowledge and spiritual traditions was severed by colonial violence Abel attempts to answer his research question of what it means to be Indigenous without access to familial territory Engaging the land through fiction and metaphor Abel creates an eerie looping and atmospheric rendering of place that evolves despite the violent and reckless histories of North America The result is a bold and profound new vision of history that decenters human perception and forgoes Westernized ways of seeing Rather than turning to characters and dialogue to explore truth Abel invites us to instead understand that the land knows everything that can and will happen even as the world lurches toward uncertainty Midnight's Sun Garry Kilworth, 2013-02-25

The wolf Meshiska gave birth to five cubs on the night before full moon Outside the den a storm was lashing the spruce trees The sky and the land had become part of each other a scatterwind night swirling with fragments of black and white Snow became darkness and darkness snow and any creature lost between the two found a rock or a tree and lay down beside it to wait until the world had formed again Into this bleak landscape Athaba is born a young wolf destined for great adventure Exiled from his pack for breaking its rigid codes of behaviour and showing too much imagination Athaba becomes a raven wolf a lonely scavenger living on scraps and his wits Survival in the icy wastes is hard and dangerous without the comfort and protection of the pack Injured and stranded far from home Athaba is forced to strike up an uneasy alliance with his natural enemy a man Together but ever wary of each other the wolf and the solitary hunter start their long walk home across the wilderness It soon becomes clear that the man must learn to be a wolf if he is to survive in the wolf's world And Athaba has to use all his imagination to learn new skills and strategies to fend for himself and his new pack member for he discovers that men are frail and often very ignorant

NISHGA Jordan Abel, 2025-07-15 Part of the inaugural Kanata Classics list with a new introduction by David Chariandy NISHGA is a groundbreaking deeply personal and devastating autobiographical meditation that attempts to address the complicated legacies of Canada's residential school system and contemporary Indigenous existence As a Nisga a writer Jordan Abel often finds himself in a position where he is asked to explain his relationship to Nisga a language Nisga a community and Nisga a cultural knowledge However as an intergenerational survivor of residential school both of his grandparents attended the same residential school his relationship to his own Indigenous identity is complicated to say the least NISHGA explores those complications and is invested in understanding how the colonial violence originating at the

Coqualeetza Indian Residential School impacted his grandparents generation then his father s generation and ultimately his own The project is rooted in a desire to illuminate the realities of intergenerational survivors of residential school but sheds light on Indigenous experiences that may not seem to be immediately or inherently Indigenous Drawing on autobiography and a series of interconnected documents including pieces of memoir transcriptions of talks and photography NISHGA is a book about confronting difficult truths and it is about how both Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples engage with a history of colonial violence that is quite often rendered invisible
