short biographies of Latino American writers and journalists and information on their works Responding to Learner Diversity and Learning Difficulties Dennis Conrad, Stacey Blackman, 2018-10-01 Caribbean Discourse in Inclusive Education Volume II Responding to Learner Diversity and Learner Difficulties shares selected critical reflections and recommendations on the way educational communities respond to student diversity and difficulties learning. These contexts include the Caribbean, the Diaspora, and beyond. Authors explore issues and strategies for realizing and sustaining the agenda of education for all within, primarily but not limited to, the Caribbean. While the authors are aware of the ongoing debate between the terms education for all and inclusive education, we use these terms interchangeably. We hold the position that inclusive education is about commitment to removing barriers to optimum learning for all learners regardless of age, ability, ethnicity, gender, geography, race, religion, sexual orientation, or other differences. Responding to Learner Diversity and Difficulties extends the discourse to include stakeholders committed to sharing their experiences and strategies for overcoming barriers to inclusive education. This second volume presents research that examines how teachers can respond to students with disabilities and difficulties learning, teach challenging curriculum content in mathematics and literacy, build citizenship through student voice, improve teacher practice via co-teaching and critical reflection, promote inclusive practice through leadership and advocacy. It can be used as a core text or companion reader for students at the undergraduate and graduate levels, lecturers, practitioners, researchers, and policy makers 25 Latino Craft Projects Ana-Elba Pavon, Diana Borrego, 2003 Provides twenty-five craft projects that revolve around Latino culture to create such items as masks, piñatas, and dolls The Caribbean Story Finder Sharon Barcan Elswit, 2017-09-11 The Caribbean islands have a vibrant oral folklore. In Jamaica, the clever spider Anansi, who outsmarts stronger animals, is a symbol of triumph by the weak over the powerful. The fables of the foolish Juan Bobo, who tries to bring milk home in a burlap bag, illustrate facets of traditional Puerto Rican life. Conflict over status, identity, and power is a recurring theme in a story from Trinidad: a young bull raised by his mother in secret challenges his tyrannical father who has killed all the other males in the herd. One in a series of folklore reference guides by the author, this volume shares summaries of 438 tales, some in danger of disappearing, retold in English and Creole from West African, European, and slave indigenous cultures in 24 countries and territories. Tales are grouped in themed sections with a detailed subject index and extensive links to online sources Cultural Zoo Salman Akhtar, Vamik D. Volkan, 2018-04-17 This book traces the historical and cross-cultural aspects of the psychic bond between man and animals and elucidates the role of animals in the normal development of the human mind. It discusses the phenomenology and dynamics of the appearance of animals in human dreams Multicultural Literature and Response Lynn Atkinson Smolen, Ruth A. Oswald Ph.D., 2010-12-22 This compelling book emphasizes the critical role of quality multicultural literature and reader response in today's schools and libraries. All students need access to books in which they can see themselves, not just their physical appearance but their culture and language as well. Multicultural Literature and Response Affirming Diverse Voices was written to help teachers and librarians find and use the best multicultural books in the service of reading comprehension and more.
