Songbirds Truffles And Wolves An American Naturalist In Italy:

Songbirds, Truffles, and Wolves Gary Paul Nabhan, 1993 THE AMERICAN NATURALIST TELLS OF HIS TRAVELS IN ITALY AS HE WALKED THE FRANCISCAN WAY TO READ THE TUSCAN AND UMBRIAN LANDSCAPE Wolves and the Wolf Myth in American Literature S.K. Robisch, 2009-05-28 The wolf is one of the most widely distributed canid species historically ranging throughout most of the Northern Hemisphere For millennia it has also been one of the most pervasive images in human mythology art and psychology Wolves and the Wolf Myth in American Literature examines the wolf s importance as a figure in literature from the perspectives of both the animal sphysical reality and the ways in which writers imagine and portray it Author S K Robisch examines more than two hundred texts written in North America about wolves or including them as central figures From this foundation he demonstrates the wolf s role as an archetype in the collective unconscious its importance in our national culture and its ecological value Robisch takes a multidisciplinary approach to his study employing a broad range of sources myths and legends from around the world symbology classic and popular literature films the work of scientists in a number of disciplines human psychology and field work conducted by himself and others By combining the fundamentals of scientific study with close readings of wide ranging literary texts Robisch astutely analyzes the correlation between actual living wolves and their representation on the page and in the human mind He also considers the relationship between literary art and the natural world and argues for a new approach to literary study an ecocriticism that moves beyond anthropocentrism to examine the complicated relationship between humans and nature Wavmarkina Italy's Influence on the American Environmental Imagination While on Pilgrimage to Assisi Robert Lawrence France, 2020-09-10 Undertaking a peripatetic pilgrimage that is equal parts a daily description of a 200 kilometre walk from the wounded mountain of La Verna to the tortured river in Assisi and an examination of the debt owed to Italy in terms of ecocultural and environmental scholarship this book provides an innovative addition to the nascent field of ecocritical narrative scholarship Through a process that has been referred to as deep travel or mind walking the text fulsomely reviews how time spent in Italy influenced the writings of notable North American environmental historians geographers scientists nature writers landscape architects and restoration theorists about the conception and manipulation of the natural world This literary field study highlights how the phenomenological co traversing of texts and trails can be a valued methodology for undertaking environmental criticism Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa John Elder, 2008-05 John Elder Professor of English and Environmental Studies at Middlebury College is the author of Reading the Mountains of Home and The Frog Run Under the Sign of Nature Explorations in Ecocriticism A Cultural History of Plants in the Early Modern Era Andrew Dalby, Annette Giesecke, 2023-12-14 A Cultural History of Plants in the Early Modern Era covers the period from 1400 to 1650 a time of discovery and rediscovery of experiment and innovation Renaissance learning brought ancient knowledge to modern European consciousness whilst exploration placed all the continents in contact with one another The dissemination of knowledge was further speeded by the spread of printing New staples and spices new botanical medicines and new garden plants all catalysed agriculture trade and science The great medical botanists of the period attempted no less than what Marlowe s Dr Faustus demanded a book wherein I might see all plants herbs and trees that grow upon the earth Human impact on plants and our botanical knowledge had irrevocably changed The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Plants presents the first comprehensive history of the uses and meanings of plants from prehistory to today The themes covered in each volume are plants as staple foods plants as luxury foods trade and exploration plant technology and science plants and medicine plants in culture plants as natural ornaments the representation of plants Andrew Dalby is an independent scholar and writer based in France Annette Giesecke is Professor of Classics at the University of Delaware USA Volume 3 in the Cultural History of Plants set General Editors Annette Giesecke University of Delaware USA and David Mabberley University of Oxford UK Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross, 2010-01-01 In Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross focuses on constructions of Tuscany in twentieth century Italian literature and juxtaposes them with English prose works by such authors as E M Forster and Frances Mayes to expose the complexity of literary representation centred on a single milieu Tuscany and Umbria: The Collected Traveler Barrie Kerper, 2011-07-12 This unique guide to one of today's hottest tourist destinations combines fascinating articles by a wide variety of writers woven throughout with the editor s own indispensable advice and opinions providing in one package an unparalleled experience of an extraordinary place This edition on Tuscany and Umbria features Articles interviews recipes and quotes from writers visitors residents and experts on the region including Frances Mayes Mario Batali Erica Jong Barbara Ohrbach Faith Willinger and David Leavitt In depth pieces about Florence and the hill towns of Tuscany and Umbria that illuminate the simple pleasures of local cuisine the dazzling art treasures of the Uffizi the civilized wilderness of Tuscan back roads the many varieties of olive oil the endearing quirks of the Italian character and much more Enticing recommendations for further reading including novels histories memoirs coookbooks and guidebooks An A Z Miscellany of concise and entertaining information on everything from biscotti to Super Tuscan wine from the history of the Medicis to traveling with children Spotlights on unusual shops restaurants hotels and experiences not to be missed More than a hundred black and white photographs and illustrations Routledge Handbook of Landscape and Food Joshua Zeunert, Tim Waterman, 2018-02-02 Since the turn of the millennium there has been a burgeoning interest in and literature of both landscape studies and food studies Landscape describes places as relationships and processes Landscapes create people s identities and guide their actions and their preferences while at the same time are shaped by the actions and forces of people Food as currency medium and sustenance is a fundamental part of those landscape relationships This volume brings together over fifty contributors from around the world in forty profoundly interdisciplinary chapters Chapter authors represent an astonishing range of disciplines from agronomy anthropology archaeology conservation countryside management cultural studies ecology ethics geography heritage studies landscape architecture landscape management and planning literature urban design and architecture Both food studies and landscape studies defy comprehension from the perspective of a single discipline and thus such a range is both necessary and enriching The Routledge Handbook of Landscape and Food is intended as a first port of call for scholars and researchers seeking to undertake new work at the many intersections of landscape and food Each chapter provides an authoritative overview a broad range of pertinent readings and references and seeks to identify areas where new research is needed though these may also be identified in the many fertile areas in which subjects and chapters overlap within the book Tuscany and Umbria Emma Jones, 2004-04-01 This history rich region offers some of Italy s classic landscapes pole straight cypress trees lining dusty farm roads rolling hills that stretch as far as the eye can see fields of vibrant sunflowers medieval villages perched on rocky spurs above crashing surf Visit them all with this comprehensive quide that helps you explore the very best places A largely untouched coastline and protected wild areas only add to the appeal of this top vacation destination Regional chapters take you on an introductory tour with stops at museums historic sites and local attractions Places to stay and eat transportation to from and around your destination practical concerns tourism contacts it s all herel Detailed regional and town maps feature walking and driving tours. Cross-pollinations Gary Paul Nabhan, 2004 A pioneering on a half century spent immersed in the Franciscan way ethnobotanist Gary Paul Nabhan credits the arts with sparking unlikely scientific breakthroughs and believes that such cross pollination engenders new forms of expression that are essential to discovery In this highly readable book he tells four stories to illustrate this idea In the first coping with color blindness in art class leads to his career as a scientist in the second ancient American Indian songs when translated reveal an understanding of plants and animals that rivals modern research in the third a poem inspires an approach to diabetes using desert plants and in the fourth a coalition of scientists and artists creates the Ironwood Forest National Monument in the Sonoran Desert Environmental Effects of Transgenic Plants National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Board on Agriculture and Natural Resources, Committee on Environmental Impacts Associated with Commercialization of Transgenic Plants, 2002-02-22 Transgenic crops offer the promise of increased agricultural productivity and better quality foods But they also raise the specter of harmful environmental effects In this new book a panel of experts examines Similarities and differences between crops developed by conventional and transgenic methods Potential for commercialized transgenic crops to change both agricultural and nonagricultural landscapes How well the U S government is regulating transgenic crops to avoid any negative effects Environmental Effects of Transgenic Plants provides a wealth of information about transgenic processes previous experience with the introduction of novel crops principles of risk assessment and management the science behind current regulatory schemes issues in monitoring transgenic products already on the market and more The book discusses public involvement and public confidence in biotechnology regulation And it looks to the future exploring the potential of genetic engineering and the prospects for environmental effects Around the Tuscan Table Carole Counihan, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Illusory Boundary Martin Reuss, Stephen H. Cutcliffe, 2010-09-20 The view of nature and technology inhabiting totally different even opposite spheres persists across time and cultures Most people would consider an English countryside or a Louisiana bayou to be natural though each is to an extent the product of technology Pollution widely thought to be a purely man made phenomenon results partly from natural processes All around us things from the natural world are brought into the human world At what point do we consider them part of culture rather than nature And does such a distinction illuminate our world or obscure its workings This compelling new book challenges the view that a clear and unwavering boundary exists between nature and technology Rejecting this dichotomy the contributors show how the history of each can be united in a constantly shifting panorama where definitions of nature and technology alter and overlap In addition to recognizing the artificial divide between these two concepts the essays in this book demonstrate how such thinking may affect societies ability to survive and prosper The answers and ideas are as numerous as the landscapes they consider for there is no single path toward a more harmonious vision of technology and nature Technologies that work in one place may not in another Nature that is preserved in one community might become the raw material of technological progress somewhere else Add to this the fact that the natural world and technology are not passive players but are profoundly involved in cultural construction Understanding such dynamics not only reveals a new historical complexity it prepares us for coping with many of the most difficult and pressing social issues facing us today Contributors Peter Coates Craig E Colten Stephen H Cutcliffe Hugh S Gorman Betsy Mendelsohn Joy Parr Peter C Perdue Sara B Pritchard Martin Reuss William D Rowley Edmund Russell Joel A Tarr Ann Vileisis James C Williams Thomas Zeller

From the Farm to the Table Gary Holthaus, 2014-04-23 A portrait of the realities of agricultural life in today s world based on interviews with more than forty farm families In this book dozens of farm families from America's heartland detail the practices and values that relate to their land work and communities Their stories reveal that those who make their living in agriculture despite stereotypes of provincialism perpetuated by the media are savvy to the influence of world politics on local issues Gary Holthaus demonstrates how outside economic governmental legal and business developments play an increasingly influential if not controlling role in every farmer's life The swift approval of genetically modified crops by the federal government the formation of huge agricultural conglomerates and the devastating environmental effects of chemical fertilizers pesticides and herbicides are just a few issues buffeting family farms From the Farm to the Table explores farmers experiences to offer a deeper understanding of how we can create sustainable and vibrant land based communities by adhering to fundamental agrarian values Tells the story of modern agriculture through engaging interviews with men and women who make a living farming in southeastern Minnesota In a tone reminiscent of Wendell Berry s A Place on Earth he examines the far reaching effects of genetically modified organisms free trade agreements that nurture transnational corporate profit dependence on fossil fuel derived chemicals and the toll all this has taken on the land and farmers Library Iournal Genoa and the Genoese, 958-1528 Steven A. Epstein, Steven Epstein, 1996 A history of Genoa tracing the city s transformation from an obscure port into the capital of a small but thriving republic with an extensive overseas empire Covering six centuries the text interweaves political events economic trends social conditions and cultural accomplishments

Turkey Travel Adventures Samantha Lafferty,2011-12-01 If like me you are a bit tired of the ethnocentric social commentary that seems to come with certain well known guidebooks then you could do worse than try this one Simple to use well written and accurate I found it invaluable and couldn t fault any of its recommendations nor descriptions Yurt Amazon reviewer Turkey is so diverse it could almost be described as a continent rather than a country In the west mountains and pine forests frame a staggeringly beautiful coastline The central steppe has the peculiar rock churches and underground cities of Cappadocia and the cosmopolitan capital of Ankara In the east there are biblical rivers a fabled mountain and haunting cities and palaces Then there is the magnetism of Istanbul Turkey s location straddles Asia and Europe The three great Empires that ruled the country for thousands of years left a legacy of enchanting cultures and more ancient sites than even Italy or Greece can boast Major areas dealt with in the guide include Istanbul Thrace and Marmara the Aegean Coast the Mediterranean Coast Central Anatolia Cappadocia the Black Sea Coast Covered in detail for each area are where to stay where to eat shopping sightseeing and adventures both cultural and physical from walking in the footsteps of St Paul to joining in the local festivals from yoga and Turkish baths to art classes and cooking courses This guide combines in depth text information with color maps photos on almost every page Existing guides are largely text only or mostly graphics and lacking the practical details travelers need Photos and maps throughout Print edition is 688 pages Native American Gardening Michael J. Caduto, Joseph Bruchac, 1996 Readers will learn about the relationships between people and the gardens of Earth seed preservation Native diets and meals natural pest control and the importance of the Circle of Life
