It is the same light Daljit Singh Jawa, 2014-02-07 Sri Guru Granth Sahib is generally known as the holy scripture of Sikhism the world s fifth largest religion But this holy scripture is neither a storybook nor just the philosophy of the Sikh saints or prophets It is more like a collection of divine revelations and hymns expressing the feelings of love and devotion of the Sikh Gurus for the Supreme Being along with the similar yearnings and longings of the devotees and saints from all faiths prevalent in Indian subcontinent during those times The beauty of this 1430 page hymnal written in 22 different languages lies in the fact that while it spiritually connects the human mind to the original source of eternal bliss it provides a very practical and effective way to live in love and harmony with other fellow human beings irrespective of their faith color caste creed or race The following are a few examples of the views of eminent writers and scholars regarding Sri Guru Granth Sahib Mankind s religious future may be obscure yet one thing can be foreseen The living higher religions are going to influence each other more than ever before in the days of increasing communications between all parts of the world and branches of the human race In this coming religious debate the Sikh religion and its scriptures the Sri Guru Granth Sahib will have something of special value to say to the rest of the world Arnold Toynbee Historian I have studied the scripture of great religions but I do not find elsewhere the same power of appeal to the heart and mind as I find here in these volumes of Sri Guru Granth Sahib There is something strangely modern about these scriptures They speak to the people of any religion or of none They speak for the human heart and the searching mind Mrs Pearl S Buck Nobel Laureate In Volume two of the It Is The Same Light series SGGS pages 201 400 author Daljit Singh Jawa continues his humble effort to share the beauty of the SGGS with those who have limited familiarity with the language

Hermeneutical Narratives in Art, Literature, and Communication Malgorzata Haladewicz-Grzelak, Paula

García-Ramírez, 2024-02-22 Exploring the relationship between hermeneutics and the arts including painting music and literature this book builds on hermeneutics from a practical perspective connecting this area of critical research with others to reveal how it is viewed from different perspectives International and interdisciplinary in scope this edited volume draws on the work of scholars and practitioners working across a variety of subject areas themes and topics including philosophy literature religious paintings musical oeuvres Chinese urbanscapes Moroccan proverbs and Ukrainian internet blogs Focusing on the idea of hermeneutics as a discipline that can connect different areas of interest the book offers an inside view into how the contributors interpret it within their own academic remits demonstrating its presence in qualitative academic interpretations and canonical contemporary research in humanities Knowledge, Love, and Ecstasy in the Theology of Thomas Gallus Boyd Taylor Coolman, 2017-01-26 Knowledge Love and Ecstasy in the Theology of Thomas Gallus provides the first full study of Thomas Gallus d 1246 in English and represents a significant advance in his distinctive theology Boyd Taylor Coolman argues that Gallus distinguishes but never separates and intimately relates two international modalities in human consciousness the intellective and the affective both of which are forms of cognition Coolman shows that Gallus conceives these two cognitive modalities as co existing in an interdependent manner and that this reciprocity is given a particular character by Gallus anthropological appropriation of the Dionysian concept of hierarchy Because Gallus conceives of the soul as hierarchized on the model of the angelic hierarchy the intellect affect relationship is fundamentally governed by the dynamism of a Dionysian hierarchy which has two simultaneous trajectories ascending and descending Two crucial features are noteworthy in this regard in ascending firstly the lower is subsumed by the higher in descending secondly the higher communicates with the lower according to the nature of the lower When Gallus posits a higher affective cognitio above an intellective cognitio at the highest point in the ascent accordingly this higher affective form both builds upon and sublimates the lower intellective form At the same time this affective cognitio descends back down into the soul both enriching its properly intellective capacity and also renewing the ascending movement in love For Gallus then in the hierarchized soul a dynamic mutuality between intellect and affect emerges which he construes as a spiralling motion by which the soul unceasingly stretches beyond itself ecstatically in knowing and loving God Signs of the Times, and
