Sound Of Sleat A Painters Life:

The Sound of Sleat Jon Schueler, 1999-01-15 The remarkable autobiography of an American artist's dreams, passions and work. As an American abstract expressionist painter and early protégé of Leo Castelli, Jon Schueler lived and worked among the country's most gifted artists: Clyfford Still, Mark Rothko, Helen Frankenthaler, Jackson Pollock, Willem De Kooning, Jasper Johns, and many others. Schueler was mysteriously driven to connect nature with a deeply personal passion. In the late 1950s he travelled for the first time to Mallaig, a town in western Scotland on the Sound of Sleat where the dramatic landscape inspired his art and continued to influence him throughout his career. Over nearly thirty years as he painted, Schueler worked on this book. In it he struggled to define what it was that compelled him to paint and wrestled with a conflict that confronts all artists: how to strike a balance between the need to create in solitude and the desire for human intimacy. The Sound of Sleat tells the story of a passionate life and offers a fascinating look at the New York art world in the latter half of this century and an astonishing window on art, hope, despair, and creativity.

The Poetics of Space and Place in Scottish Literature Monika Szuba, Julian Wolfreys, 2019-04-01 This book addresses the poetics of space and place in Scottish literature. Focusing chiefly on twentieth and twenty-first century texts with acknowledgement of historical and philosophical contexts, the essays address representation, narrative form, the work of the poetic perception and experience. Major genres and forms are discussed, and authors as diverse as George Mackay Brown, Kathleen Jamie, Ken McLeod, and Kei Miller are presented through theoretically informed, historically contextualized close readings. Additionally considering the role of dialect and region in the poetry and fiction of modern Scotland, the volume argues for an appreciation of the cultural diversity of Scottish writers while highlighting the overarching presence of a connection between self and world, subject and place within Scottish literature.

Artists' Estates Magda Salvesen, Diane Cousineau, 2005 Artists' Estates offers a fascinating journey into the complex and competitive art world through the distinctive lens of those who deal with the paintings, prints, and sculpture that artists leave behind after their deaths. Bringing together interviews conducted by Magda Salvesen, the widow of the second-generation Abstract Expressionist painter Jon Schueler, this unique book provides a window into the goals and desires, the conflicts and frustrations, and the emotional and financial strains that confront widows, companions, sons, and daughters as the heirs to artists' estates. The judiciously arranged and edited interviews also address the benefits and liabilities of foundations and trusts through the insights of lawyers, gallery dealers, and foundation directors. Readers will explore well-known estates including those of Roy Lichtenstein, Mark Rothko, Adolph Gottlieb, Milton Avery, Romare Bearden, and David Smith, as well as the equally intriguing legacies of lesser-known artists whose work came to the fore in the forties and fifties. Together, the passionate testimonies of families and lovers, the measured voices of art professionals, and the more than eighty photographs offer an indispensable entrée into the private and public worlds of art.
