Texts in Context Michael C. Leff, Fred J. Kauffeld, 1989 Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski, 2001-07-19 Please update SAGE UK and SAGE INDIA addresses on imprint page Texts in Context Michael C. Leff, 1989 Sourcebook on Rhetoric , America's Joan of Arc J. Matthew Gallman, 2006-04-15 Gallman offers the first full length biography of Dickinson to appear in over half a century He describes how Dickinson's passionate patriotism and fiery style coupled with her unabashed abolitionism and biting critiques of antiwar Democrats known as Copperheads struck a nerve with her audiences In barely two years she rose from an unknown young Philadelphia radical to a successful New England stump speaker to a true national celebrity At the height of her fame Dickinson counted many of the nation's leading reformers authors politicians and actors among her friends including Susan B Anthony Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Harriet Beecher Stowe Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Roger C. Aden, 2018-09-15 Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Displaced and Ephemeral Public Memories vividly illustrates that a nation's history is more complicated than the simple binary of remembered forgotten Some parts of history while not formally recognized within a commemorative landscape haunt those landscapes by virtue of their ephemeral or displaced presence Rather than being discretely contained within a formal sites these memories remain public by lingering along the edges and within the crevices of commemorative landscapes By integrating theories of haunting place and public memory this collection demonstrates that the National Mall often referred to as the nation's front yard might better be understood as the nation's attic because it hides those issues we do not want to address but cannot dismiss The neatly ordered installations and landscaping of the National Mall if one looks and listens closely reveal the messiness of US history From the ephemeral memories of protests on the Mall to the displaced but persistent presences of inequality each chapter in this book examines the ways in which contemporary public life in the US is haunted by incomplete efforts to close the book on the past Academic Constraints in Rhetorical Criticism of the New Testament J. David Hester Amador, 1999-01-01 Rhetorical criticism promised to bring New Testament studies into a new era that approached the Bible as a document of persuasive discourse Major proponents of this approach suggested that its potential lies in its democratization of biblical interpretation To date that promise has never been fulfilled The reasons can be found by exploring the rhetoric of these rhetorical critics Such an exploration uncovers systems of disciplinary constraints and discursive habits that keep rhetoric firmly within traditional units of academic biblical interpretation The promise of rhetoric can only be fulfilled by shattering all notions of a rhetorical programme of biblical interpretation Cold War Rhetoric Martin J. Medhurst, Robert L. Ivie, Philip Wander, Robert L. Scott, 1997-11-30 Cold War Rhetoric is the first book in over twenty years to bring a sustained rhetorical critique to bear on central texts of the Cold War The rhetorical texts that are the subject of this book include speeches by Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy the Murrow McCarthy confrontation on CBS the speeches and writings of peace advocates and the recurring theme of unAmericanism as it has been expressed in various media throughout the Cold War years Each of the authors brings to his texts a particular approach to rhetorical criticism strategic metaphorical or ideological Each provides an introductory chapter on methodology that explains the assumptions and strengths of their particular approach

Sound Tactics Justin Eckstein, 2025-03-25 From call and response chants to the noise of pots and pans protests are often defined by their sounds In this book Justin Eckstein argues that this is not merely the result of catchy slogans it is due to sound s ability to hold those in power accountable Sound Tactics highlights how in a world grappling with the uncertainty of emergent digital practices social movements utilize the rhetorical power of sound Eckstein uses the waveform as a metaphor for the persuasive potential of sound Examining the case studies of the March for Our Lives protest Howard University s HUResist movement and the Casseroles protest in Montreal Eckstein demonstrates how changes to the immediacy intensity and immersiveness of sound can affect the power of an argument The collective use of sound in these case studies conveys the unity of the protestors in their demand for change and underlines the strength of their argument to those in power More than just the written word spoken aloud sound has unique layers of added meaning it can convey length of time demand attention and signal disapproval Eckstein s study unpacks those layers for scholars and students as well as activists interested in deploying sound for change
