Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide, 2001 Black American Short Stories John Henrik Clarke, 1993 A collection of short stories by African American authors Books Out Loud, 2007 Tales from Sacred Wind Cratis D. Williams, 2003-03-11 Prior to his death in 1985 Cratis Williams was a leading scholar of and spokesperson for Appalachian life and literature and a pioneer of the Appalachian studies movement Williams was born in a log cabin on Caines Creek Lawrence County Kentucky in 1911 To use his own terms he was a complete mountaineer This book is an edited compilation of Williams memoirs of his childhood These autobiographical reminiscences often take the form of a folktale with individual titles such as Preacher Lang Gets Drunk and The Double Murder at Sledges Schooled initially in traditional stories and ballads he learned to read by the light of his grandfather s whiskey still and excelled at the local one room school After becoming the first person from Caines Creek to attend and graduate from the county high school in Louisa he taught in one room schools while pursuing his own education He earned both a BA and MA from the University of Kentucky before moving to Appalachian State Teacher s College in 1942 later he earned a Ph D from New York University and then returned to Appalachian State The Call of Love: A collection of short stories Anne Teoh, 2015-06-04 Seven stories spanning the globe and a century revealing narratives of individual characters and their experience in a rich multicultural context Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown, 2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies Fools and other Stories Njabulo S. Ndebele, 2015-04-01 Fools and Other Stories is an intricate and subtle collection that deals with the formative experiences of growing up in a Johannesburg township during the apartheid years These five stories are part of a long project in which I am attempting to explore imaginatively various aspects of life in the community I grew up in in South Africa The first part which these five stories cover deals with the themes of early childhood and adolescence In the second part I hope to explore adult life up to old age lastly I want to imaginatively study the movement of social change Njabulo S Ndebele Been There, Done That: Writing

Stories from Real Life Mike Winchell, 2016-08-23 Award winning and bestselling authors turn their own real life experiences into captivating works of fiction Where do authors get their ideas And how do they turn those ideas into stories This anthology looks at the process of taking real life experiences and turning them into works of engaging fiction The collection features award winning and bestselling middle grade authors who provide both original fictional short stories as well as the nonfiction accounts that inspired them The contributing authors include Julia Alvarez Karen Cushman Margarita Engle Dee Garretson Nathan Hale Matthew Kirby Claire Legrand Grace Lin Kate Messner Linda Sue Park Adam Rex Gary Schmidt Alan Sitomer Caroline Starr Rose Heidi Stemple Rita Williams Garcia Tracy Edward Wymer Lisa Yee and Jane Yolen

Faith, Family, and Flag Joanna Dee Das, 2025-11-25 Sons of Britches The Great American Chuckwagon Dinner Show The Haygoods The Grand Jubilee These are just a couple of the many shows performed in Branson MO where the seemingly innocent entertainment fuels American conservatism Branson Missouri the Ozark Mountain mecca of wholesome entertainment has been home to countless stage shows espousing patriotism and Christianity welcoming over ten million visitors a year Some consider it God s Country and others as close to Hell as anything on Earth For Joanna Dee Das Branson is a political religious and cultural harbinger of a certain enduring dream of what America is She takes Branson more seriously than the light hearted fun it advertises and maybe we should too For Das Branson s performers offer visions of the American Dream that embody a set of values known as the three Fs faith family and flag Branson boosters insist that these are universal values that welcome all people the city aims to capture as many tourists as possible But over the past several decades faith family and flag have become markers of contemporary conservatism The shows and culture of Branson for all their fun and laughter have been a galvanizing political force for white working and middle class Christian Americans For social and economic conservatives alike Branson is practically proof of concept for America as they want it to be Faith Family and Flag is a comprehensive history of the Branson entertainment industry within the context of America s long culture wars Das reveals how and why a town known for popular entertainment a domain associated most often with the political left Hollywood liberals came to be so important to the political right and its vision for America

Stories Seen Through Screen Doors Dr. Wanda Macon, 2021-07-06 Stories Seen Through Screen Doors The Roots and Branches of Black Southern Experience A truth seldom recognized is that there are almost as many African American southern experiences as there are states and cities in the South Our lives as southern black people intersect but they also diverge into unique patterns of learning growth and discovery The stories contained in this collection illustrate some of those similarities as well as the differences Wanda Macon shares with millions of African Americans a southern soil that is rich in family church and racial repression but she also highlights the spiritedness of a tomboyish young girl too smart for her preschool age formed by a variety of occurrences in her small southern community The Courts a horseshoe shaped neighborhood and home to twenty three families located in fictional Friarsdale Mississippi is the site for experience memory reflection and locating one s self in
