Compendium ,2001 The genesis for this book was a 1969 compilation in which Peter Lovesey and Tom McNab described all books on track and field to date Both authors have had a lifetime interest and involvement in athletics and the present work builds on that knowledge and expertise to give the reader a definitive guide to the UK literature of track and field This super bibliography includes an extensive introductory overview of the literature by Tom McNab as well as annotations contributed by all three compilers The compendium covers the history theory and practice and personalities of athletics as well as special chapters on athletics in literature and the visual arts National Union Catalog, 1980 ,1981 National Union Catalog, 1981 ,1982 Olympic Heroes J. Gerald Harris,1996 The Quiet conquests of these Olympic athletes represent the true measure of a hero often far from the cheering fans that mark a win on the field Olympic Television Andrew C.

Billings,James R. Angelini,Paul J. MacArthur,2017-07-31 As the Olympic spectacle grows broadcast coverage becomes bigger more complex and more sophisticated Part sporting event part reality show and part global festival the Olympics can be seen as both intensely nationalistic and a celebration of a shared sense of international community This book sheds new light on how the Olympic experience has been shaped by television and expanded across multiple platforms and formats Combining a multitude of approaches ranging from interviews to content analyses to audience surveys the book explores the production influence and significance of Olympic media in contemporary society Built on a central case study of NBC s coverage of the Rio Games in 2016 which is then placed within 20 years of content analyses the book focuses on the entire Olympic television process from production to content to effects Touching on key themes such as race gender history consumerism identity nationalism and storytelling Olympic Television Broadcasting the Biggest Show on Earth is fascinating reading for any student or scholar with an interest in sport media and the global impact of mega events National Union Catalog ,1981 Includes entries for maps and atlases
