Seriously Funny Gerald Nachman, 2009-08-26 The comedians of the 1950s and 1960s were a totally different breed of relevant revolutionary performer from any that came before or after comics whose humor did much more than pry guffaws out of audiences Gerald Nachman presents the stories of the groundbreaking comedy stars of those years each one a cultural harbinger Mort Sahl of a new political cynicism Lenny Bruce of the sexual drug and language revolution Dick Gregory of racial unrest Bill Cosby and Godfrey Cambridge of racial harmony Phyllis Diller of housewifely complaint Mike Nichols Elaine May and Woody Allen of self analytical angst and a rearrangement of male female relations Stan Freberg and Bob Newhart of encroaching pervasive pop media manipulation and in the case of Bob Elliott Ray Goulding of the banalities of broadcasting Mel Brooks of the Yiddishization of American comedy Sid Caesar of a new awareness of the satirical possibilities of television Joan Rivers of the obsessive craving for celebrity gossip and of a latent bitchy sensibility Tom Lehrer of the inane hypocritical mawkishly sentimental nature of hallowed American folkways and in the case of the Smothers Brothers of overly revered folk songs and folklore Steve Allen of the late night talk show as a force in American comedy David Frye and Vaughn Meader of the merger of showbiz and politics and along with Will Jordan of stretching the boundaries of mimicry Shelley Berman of a generation of obsessively self confessional humor Jonathan Winters and Jean Shepherd of the daring new free form improvisational comedy and of a sardonically updated view of Midwestern archetypes Ernie Kovacs of surreal visual effects and the unbounded vistas of video Taken together they made up the faculty of a new school of vigorous socially aware satire a vibrant group of voices that reigned from approximately 1953 to 1965 Nachman shines a flashlight into the corners of these comedians chaotic and often troubled lives illuminating their genius as well as their demons damaged souls and desperate drive His exhaustive research and intimate interviews reveal characters that are intriguing and all too human full of rich stories confessions regrets and traumas Seriously Funny is at once a dazzling cultural history and a joyous celebration of an extraordinary era in American comedy 25 Years of Celebrity Interviews from Vaudeville to Movies to TV, Reel to Real David Fantle, Tom Johnson, 2004 This book is a compilation of 25 years of interviews with stars ranging from vaudeville to Gregory Peck Charlton Heston and Bob Hope with rare photos taken by the authors themselves The Haunted Smile Lawrence J. Epstein, 2008-08-05 Lawrence Epstein s The Haunted Smile tackles a subject both poignant and delightful the story of Jewish comedians in America For the past century and more American comedy has drawn its strength and soul from the comic genius of Jewish performers and writers An incomplete listing of names makes the point The Marx Brothers Jack Benny Fanny Brice George Burns Milton Berle Jackie Mason Joan Rivers Rodney Dangerfield Mel Brooks Alan King Mort Sahl Buddy Hackett Woody Allen Lenny Bruce Andy Kaufman Richard Belzer Jerry Seinfeld These men and women among others form the canon of Jewish American comedy In the words of the Detroit Jewish News The Haunted Smile offers us a deep and subtle understanding of how Jewish culture and American openness gave birth to a new style of entertainment Often the best way to illuminate a point is to recount some of these comedians own brilliant routines and Epstein uses the comedian s work to great effect making for a book that is both a thoughtful work of history and a great deal of fun Quotations for All Occasions ,2003 From menopause to moving in from losing weight to starting a business this organized book is filled with 1 500 quotations that capture the mundane and the magnificent and covers 150 occasions Kissing Cousins Frances Bartkowski,2008-09-18 Since DNA has replaced blood as the medium through which we establish kinship how do we determine with whom we are kin Who counts among those we care for The distinction between these categories is constantly in flux How do we come to decide those we may kiss and those we may kill Focusing on narratives of kinship as they are defined in contemporary film literature and news media Frances Bartkowski discusses the impact of stories of origin on our regard for nonhuman species She locates the role of totems and taboos in forming and re forming kinship categories groupings that enable us to tie the personal to the social and explores the bestiary among the oldest of literary forms The bestiary is the realm in which we allegorize the place of humans and other species a menagerie encompassing animals we know as well as human animal chimeras and other beings that challenge the natural order of the world Yet advances in reproductive technologies the mapping of genomes and the study of primates continually destabilize these categories and recast the dynamic between the natural and the cultural Bartkowski highlights the arbitrariness of traditional kinship arrangements and asks us to rethink our notions of empathy and ethics She shows how current dialogues concerning ethics and desire determine contemporary attitudes toward issues of care and suggests a new framework for negotiating connection and conflict All About Me!
