provoking scholarship Critical Perspectives on Black Women and College Success is a definitive resource for scholarship and research on Black undergraduate women Black Women, Citizenship, and the Making of Modern Cuba Takkara K. Brunson, 2023-03-07 In the first book to focus on the activism of Black women during Cuba's prerevolutionary period Takkara Brunson discusses how these women battled exclusion on multiple fronts but played an important role in forging a modern democracy Feminist Judgments Ann C. McGinley, Nicole Buonocore Porter, 2020-10-15 How would feminist perspectives and analytical methods change the interpretation of employment discrimination law Would the conscious use of feminist perspectives make a difference This volume shows the difference feminist analysis can make to the interpretation of employment discrimination statutes This book brings together a group of scholars and lawyers to rewrite fifteen employment discrimination decisions in which a feminist analysis would have changed the outcome or the courts reasoning It demonstrates that use of feminist perspectives and methodologies if adopted by the courts would have made a significant difference in employment discrimination law leading to a fairer and more egalitarian workplace and a more prosperous society Black Woman's Guide to Beautiful Hair Lisa Akbari, 2002 Presents a program for African American women to take care of their hair and scalp Ain't I a Beauty Queen? Maxine Leeds Craig, 2002-06-20 Black is Beautiful The words were the exuberant rallying cry of a generation of black women who threw away their straightening combs and adopted a proud new style they called the Afro The Afro as worn most famously by Angela Davis became a veritable icon of the Sixties Although the new beauty standards seemed to arise overnight they actually had deep roots within black communities Tracing her story to 1891 when a black newspaper launched a contest to find the most beautiful woman of the race Maxine Leeds Craig documents how black women have negotiated the intersection of race class politics and personal appearance in their lives Craig takes the reader from beauty parlors in the 1940s to late night political meetings in the 1960s to demonstrate the powerful influence of social movements on the experience of daily life With sources ranging from oral histories of Civil Rights and Black Power Movement activists and men and women who stood on the sidelines to black popular magazines and the black movement press Ain't I a Beauty Queen will fascinate those interested in beauty culture gender class and the dynamics of race and social movements Wake Up Blackman and Blackwomen Odinga Oginga, 2004-10 Myths and Traditions we follow which are not true Blacks do not know who they are and don't care The Preacher is a Curse and an agent of the government Diasporic Women's Writing of the Black Atlantic Emilia María Durán-Almaraz, Esther Álvarez López, 2013-10-30 This book brings together a complete set of approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to engender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds
