charming Shamian Island Guangzhou is at the heart of the south's economic revolution. Although it is still undoubtedly a polluted city, attention is being paid to the environment albeit often only in the most aesthetic sense. Every time I visit I notice new areas of greenery and the city is becoming more and more visitor friendly. There is an ever expanding subway network, a new airport and improved links with other Pearl River Delta destinations. There are also a host of sights to visit within a two hour transport radius of Guangzhou and the city makes a good base from which to explore smaller towns such as Huizhou and Zhaoqing. This guide is based on our 640 page China Adventure Guide. Following are some reviews of that book. We travel to grow. Adventure Guides show you how.
