political representation and more gender sensitive policy in areas such as domestic violence Georgina Waylen argues that women's mobilization during transitions is no guarantee of success and change is easier to achieve in some areas than others Understanding the roles that can be played by organized women's movements key actors and the wider political environment is crucial in helping us to explain why these gender outcomes vary in different contexts This book addresses important debates within the study of both comparative politics and gender and politics and substantially improves our understanding of the ways in which transitions to democracy are gendered

Women Confront Cancer Margaret Wooddell, David J. Hess, 1998-10 Each year hundreds of thousands of women are diagnosed with cancer and more and more frequently women are turning to alternative treatments to take control of their illnesses and their lives Information however has been scarce for women navigating through conventional and unconventional medicine Research funding continues to support traditional cancer therapies Women Confront Cancer declares the need for new less toxic therapies and diagnostic procedures For the first time Women Confront Cancer unites the voices of women leaders who have breast cervical ovarian and other cancers Documenting the decision process the choices and the dilemmas these women faced as they chose alternative and complementary cancer treatments a powerful unity emerges pointing the way to the future of the diagnosis and treatment of cancer by less toxic methods Ann Frahm the author of A Cancer Battle Plan Susan Moss the author of Keep Your Breasts and Cathy Hitchcock coauthor of Breast Cancer are only three of the leaders who relate their personal experiences with cancer All of the women featured in Women Confront Cancer share how and why they created treatment programs that combine the best of conventional and unconventional approaches and how it has improved their health and their lives A call for patients rights for policy reform in cancer research for better information about both conventional and alternative medicine Women Confront Cancer will be both a source of inspiration for women who have cancer and an aid for them in creating their own approach to healing Did you know that October is NATIONAL BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH and pink is the color that symbolizes breast cancer awareness
