The Hebrew Bible in Its Social World and in Ours Norman Karol Gottwald, 1993 Text in Context Andrew David Hastings Mayes, 2000-09-07 The scholarly study of the Old Testament is now marked by a rich diversity of approaches and concerns In the last two decades an interest in the text and the implications for its interpretation is no longer the preserve of a single scholarly community while the reconstruction of the history of the people from whom it derived has been transformed by new methods This new book published under the auspices of the Society for Old Testament Study reflects these new approaches and developments and has a particular concentration on literary and historical study Thus it not only clearly recognizes the diversity now inherent in Old Testament study but also welcomes the integration into its field of the wide range of approaches available in current literary and historical investigation The study of the biblical text and how it is received and interpreted by its various readerships has a certain logical priority over the study of its historical background and authorship Yet an ongoing investigation of issues relating to the latter cannot await definitive conclusions on the former So essays on the text and its reception discuss primary issues which arise in Old Testament study while those on background and authorship reflect the continued vitality of and the fresh perspective possible in more traditional scholarly concerns A Liturgy of Grief Leslie C. Allen, 2011-09-01 In Lamentations we read of the unbearable grief experienced by a group of believers Leslie Allen suggests the book can be read as the script of a liturgy performed to help the people of God come to terms with the fall of Jerusalem and the national catastrophe it entailed It reveals God's sometimes hidden support for those who grieve and for their caregivers In this unique commentary on Lamentations respected Old Testament scholar and volunteer hospital chaplain Leslie Allen appropriates this oft neglected book of the Bible to deal with a universal issue Incorporating stories of pastoral encounters with hospital patients Allen integrates Scripture and pastoral care to present a biblical model for helping those coping with grief The book includes a foreword by Nicholas Wolterstorff author of Lament for a Son Social Justice and the Hebrew Bible, Volume Three Norman K. Habel, 2001-01-01 In this volume scholars from around the world read the story of Earth in key texts from the Psalms and the Prophets Their readings challenge popular understandings of the Chaokampf myth the theophany of Psalm 29 and the New Earth in Isaiah 65 Re readings of Ezekiel expose the cruelty of divine justice extended to the natural world Several articles by indigenous writers sensitive to the voice of Earth bring new insights to the potential meaning of texts like Psalm 104 Contributors include Lloyd Geering Russell Nelson William Urbrock Laurie Braaten Keith Carley Anne Gardner John Olley Gunther Wittenberg Kalinda Stevenson Peter Trudinger Arthur Walker Jones Norman Charles Howard Wallace Geraldine Avent Madipoane Masenya and Abotchie Ntrel The Social World of the Sages Mark s. Sneed,2015-06-01 Is there evidence for a distinct wisdom tradition in ancient Israel Mark R Sneed redefines the wisdom literature as a loosely cohering collection of books that educated scribal apprentices in moral instruction Sneed discusses the data for scribal culture and pedagogy in the ancient Near East suggesting that wisdom literature was meant to complement not to compete with other modes of literature in the Hebrew Bible The result is a surprising new picture of the authors and tradents of the wisdom literature Maps and illustrations included A Theology of Justice in Exodus Nathan Bills,2020-10-16 This book traces the theme of justice throughout the narrative of Exodus in order to explicate how yhwh s reclamation of Israel for service worship reveals a distinct theological ethic of justice grounded in yhwh s character and Israel s calling within yhwh s creational agenda Adopting a synchronic text immanent interpretive strategy that focuses on canonical and inner biblical connections Nathan Bills identifies two overlapping motifs that illuminate the theme of justice in Exodus First Bills considers the importance of Israel s creation traditions for grounding Exodus s theology of justice Reading Exodus against the backdrop of creation theology and as a continuation of the plot of Genesis Bills shows that the ethical disposition of justice imprinted on Israel in Exodus is an application of yhwh s creational agenda of justice Second Bills identifies an educational agenda woven throughout the text The narrative gives heightened attention to the way yhwh catechizes Israel in what it means to be the particular beneficiary and creational emissary of yhwh s justice These interpretative lenses of creation theology and pedagogy help to explain why Israel s salvation and shaping embody a programmatic applicability of yhwh s justice for the wider world This volume will be of substantial interest to divinity students and religious professionals interested in the themes of exodus exile and return Appealing to God or Man Nicholas J. Campbell,2025-03-31 Appealing to God or Man Contrasting Barrenness and Family Death Narratives in the Hebrew Bible and Ancient Near East argues for a reevaluation of barrenness type scenes in the Hebrew Bible and ancient Near East More specifically the argument is for a distinction women in family death narratives appeal to men while women in barrenness narratives appeal to God Even the male centric epics of the ancient Near East show that women interact with the divine more during barrenness crises e g the wife s prophetic dream in the Etana myth than during family death crises e g male divine narratives in Kirta and Aqhat This distinction not only clarifies the narrative tropes but emphasizes the role of women in these crises and intersects with discussions of household roles in the ancient Near East Male and female roles in marriage and fertility drive the responses of characters in these idealized narrative worlds especially in family death and barrenness narratives Women in the Hebrew Bible Alice Bach,2013-10-31 Women in the Hebrew Bible presents the first one volume overview covering the interpretation of women s place in man s world within the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament

Written by the major scholars in the field of biblical studies and literary theory these essays examine attitudes toward women and their status in ancient Near Eastern societies focusing on the Israelite society portrayed by the Hebrew Bible

Reconceiving Infertility Candida R. Moss, Joel S. Baden, 2015-08-21 A more complete picture of how procreation and childlessness are depicted in the Bible In the Book of Genesis the first words God speaks to humanity are Be fruitful and multiply From ancient times to today these words have been understood as a divine command to procreate Fertility is viewed as a sign of blessedness and moral uprightness while infertility is associated with sin and moral failing Reconceiving Infertility explores traditional interpretations such as these providing a more complete picture of how procreation and childlessness are depicted in the Bible Closely examining texts and themes from both the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament Candida Moss and Joel Baden offer vital new perspectives on infertility and the social experiences of the infertile in the biblical tradition They begin with perhaps the most famous stories of infertility in the Bible those of the matriarchs Sarah Rebekah and Rachel and show how the divine injunction in Genesis is both a blessing and a curse Moss and Baden go on to discuss the metaphorical treatments of Israel as a barren mother the conception of Jesus Paul's writings on family and reproduction and more They reveal how biblical views on procreation and infertility and the ancient contexts from which they emerged were more diverse than we think Reconceiving Infertility demonstrates that the Bible speaks in many voices about infertility and lays a biblical foundation for a more supportive religious environment for those suffering from infertility today

Lamentations and the Tears of the World Kathleen H. O'Connor, 2015-02-19 Daring, Disreputable and Devout Dan W. Clanton, 2009-04-01 Stories of women in the Bible have been interpreted by artists writers musicians filmmakers and biblical commentators for centuries However in many cases these later interpreters have often adapted and altered the Bible to fit their own views of the stories Ironically these later renderings usually serve as the basis for the generally accepted views of biblical women For example many readers of the Bible assume that Eve is to blame for the disobedient act in the Garden of Eden or that Delilah seduced Samson and then cut his hair A closer look at these assumptions though reveals that they are not based on the Bible but are mediated through the creations of later interpreters In this book the author examines eight such women's stories and shows how later readers interact with the biblical stories to construct sometimes fanciful sometimes faulty views of these women Dan Clanton Jr broadens our awareness of the influence of these later readings on how we understand biblical women so that we can be more critical in our engagement with them and become more familiar with what the Bible actually says about the women whose stories it contains Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations Larry L. Walker, Elmer A. Martens, 2017-05-01 The Cornerstone Biblical Commentary series 18 volumes is the product of nearly 40 scholars many of whom participated in the creation of the NLT The contributors to this series who are well known and represent a wide spectrum of theological positions within the evangelical community have built each volume to help pastors teachers and students of the Bible understand every thought contained in the Bible In short this will be one of the premier resources for those seeking an accessible but fairly high level discussion of scriptural interpretation Elmer A Martens PhD is professor emeritus of Old Testament and president emeritus at Mennonite Brethren Biblical Seminary Fresno California where he has taught for over 30 years He is the author of God's Design A Focus on Old Testament Theology and a commentary on Jeremiah Herald Press He was coeditor of The Flowering of Old Testament Theology and served for several years as the editor of the journal Direction Larry L Walker PhD held a professional teaching career with time split between Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Mid America Baptist Seminary Since his retirement in 1998 he has done adjunct teaching at several seminaries He authored a commentary on Zephaniah for the Expositor's Bible Commentary and is also a contributor to the New International Dictionary of Old Testament Theology and Exegesis

God's Judgment through the Davidic Messiah Myongil Kim, 2020-10-02 This dissertation examines the role of the Davidic Messiah who is the agent of God's judgment in Romans 1:18-4:25 It may be summarized in two theses First of all the Davidic Messiah was expected in the Old Testament and the Second Temple Jewish writings which establish the foundation for Paul's Davidic Messiah Christology in Romans Second the language in the role of the agent of God's judgment cannot be identified with the term faithfulness
