The 400 Blows:

The Adventures of Antoine Doinel François Truffaut, 1971 Crowds, Power, and Transformation in Cinema Lesley Brill, 2006 A noted critic brings crowd theory to Film Studies offering a bold new analysis of the pervasive cinematic themes of transformation and power From Intolerance to The Silence of the Lambs motion pictures show crowds and power in complex usually antagonistic relationships Key to understanding this opposition is an intrinsic capability of the cinema transformation Making unprecedented use of Elias Canetti's Crowds and Power Lesley Brill explores crowds power and transformation throughout film history The formation of crowds together with crowd symbols and representations of power create complex unifying structures in two early masterpieces The Battleship Potemkin and Intolerance In Throne of Blood power seekers become increasingly isolated while the crowd of the dead seduces and overwhelms the living The conflict between crowds and power in Citizen Kane takes place both within the protagonist and between him and the people he tries to master North by Northwest Killer of Sheep and The Silence of the Lambs are rich in hunting and predation and show the crowd as a pack transformation true false and failed is the key to both attack and escape Brill's study provides original insights into canonical movies and shows anew the central importance of transformation in film Film theorists critics and historians will value this fresh and intriguing approach to film classics which also has much to say about cinema itself and its unique relationship to mass audiences Francois Truffaut's Adventures of Antoine Doinel \(The 400 Blows\) Francois Truffaut, Action! Gary Morris, 2009-02-01 Action presents nineteen outstanding interviews with directors past and present from around the world working in a variety of genres budgets and production environments from major studios to indie and DIY The result is a vibrant group portrait of the filmmaking art a kind of festival in words that explores everything from the enormous creative and personal satisfactions to the challenges and frustrations of the process Contemporary Sino-French Cinemas Michelle E. Bloom, 2017-11-30 Transnational cinemas are eclipsing national cinemas in the contemporary world and Sino French films exemplify this phenomenon through the cinematic coupling of the Sinophone and the Francophone linking France not just with the Chinese mainland but also with the rest of the Chinese speaking world Sinophone directors most often reach out to French cinema by referencing and adapting it They set their films in Paris and metropolitan France cast French actors and sometimes use French dialogue even when the directors themselves don't understand it They tend to view France as mysterious sexy and sophisticated just as the French see China and Taiwan as exotic As Michelle E Bloom makes clear many films move past a simplistic opposition between East and West and beyond Orientalist and Occidentalist cross cultural interplay Bloom focuses on films that have appeared since 2000 such as Tsai Ming-liang's What Time Is It There Hou Hsiao-hsien's Flight of the Red Balloon and Dai Sijie's Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress She views the work of these well known directors through a Sino French optic applying the tropes of métissage or biraciality intertextuality adaptation and remake translation and imitation to shed new light on their work She also calls attention to important lesser studied films Taiwanese director Cheng Yu chieh's Yang Yang which depicts the up and coming Taiwanese star Sandrine Pinna as a mixed race beauty and Emily Tang Xiaobai's debut film Conjugation which contrasts Paris and post Tiananmen Square Beijing the one an incarnation of liberty the other a place of entrapment Bloom's insightful analysis also probes what such films reveal about their Taiwanese and Chinese creators Scholars have long studied Sino French literature but this inaugural full length work on Sino French cinema maps uncharted territory offering a paradigm for understanding other cross cultural interminglings and tools to study transnational cinema and world cinema The Sino French rich and multifaceted linguistically culturally and ethnically constitutes an important part of film studies Francophone studies Sinophone studies and myriad other fields This is a must read for students scholars and lovers of film French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2014-04-23 The second edition of this innovative textbook brings together leading scholars to provide detailed analyses of twenty two key films within the canon of French cinema from the 1920s to the 1990s Films discussed include masterpieces such as Renoir's La Bete Humaine and Carne's Les Enfants du Paradis popular classics such as Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Ma Nuit chez Maud landmarks of the New Wave such as Les 400 Coups and A bout de souffle important films of the 1990s such as Nikita and La Haine The films are considered in relation to such issues as the history of French cinema the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception the relationship with Hollywood cinema gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema Tsai Ming-liang and a Cinema of Slowness Song Hwee Lim, 2014-01-31 How can we qualify slowness in cinema What is the relationship between a cinema of slowness and a wider socio cultural slow movement A body of films that shares a propensity toward slowness has emerged in many parts of the world over the past two decades This is the first book to examine the concept of cinematic slowness and address this fascinating phenomenon in contemporary film culture Providing a critical investigation into questions of temporality materiality and aesthetics and examining concepts of authorship cinephilia and nostalgia Song Hwee Lim offers insight into cinematic slowness through the films of the Malaysian born Taiwan based director Tsai Ming liang Through detailed analysis of aspects of stillness and silence in cinema Lim delineates the strategies by which slowness in film can be constructed By drawing on writings on cinephilia and the films of directors such as Abbas Kiarostami Hou Hsiao hsien and Nuri Bilge Ceylan he makes a passionate case for a slow cinema that calls for renewed attention to the image and to the experience of time in film Tsai Ming liang and a Cinema of Slowness will speak to readers with an interest in art cinema queer studies East Asian culture and the question of time In an age of unrelenting acceleration of pace both in film and in life this book invites us to pause and listen to linger and look and above all to take things slowly

A Popular Criminology of Youth Justice Jessica Urwin, 2024-12-19 Analysing the representation of youth crime and justice involved children in popular fictional films this book explores how what we see on screen contributes to the perceptions of youth justice in society policy and practice Putting forward the argument that fictional representations have a real world impact on the opportunities available to children each chapter in the book focuses on a different genre or type of film and considers the ways in which justice involved children have been demonised stereotyped and harmed by their portrayal on the big screen From James Dean and the birth of monstrous youth in Rebel Without A Cause to the current more nuanced portrayals as seen in The Young Offenders the book examines films throughout history and across different cultures In doing so it demonstrates how portrayals of justice involved children have contributed to the social understanding of what youth crime is and who is to blame for it and highlights how we can use this knowledge to better understand and support children By combining youth justice theory with media analysis A Popular Criminology of Youth Justice Youth on Film makes a novel contribution to both fields and will be of great interest to students and researchers in the areas of youth crime youth justice and the media

François Truffaut Annette Insdorf, 2020-08-31 Truffaut's films beautifully demonstrate the idea that a film can express its director as personally as a novel can reveal its author Moreover his development of a gently self-conscious visual style made him more than the entertainer he believed he was there is genuine artistry in his motion pictures He affected the course of French cinema indeed world cinema by blending auteurist art with accessible cinematic storytelling Unlike other New Wave directors such as Jean Luc Godard Truffaut preferred idiosyncratic characters like the semi-autobiographical Antoine Doinel and universal emotions especially desire and fear to political tracts or didactic essays Instead of the elitism or self-indulgence that characterize much of European cinema Truffaut's movies were meant to touch people from different countries times and classes And they keep succeeding in this aim Truffaut's cinema remains a model of intimate reasonably budgeted sophisticated filmmaking that can still speak delightfully and profoundly to an international audience Long considered the definitive study of Truffaut's genius this revised and updated edition of François Truffaut includes fresh insights and an extensive section on the director's last five films Love on the Run The Green Room The Last Metro The Woman Next Door and Confidentially Yours While not a biography of the director Insdorf captures in this study the essence and totality of Truffaut's work She discusses his contributions to the French New Wave his relations with his mentors Hitchcock and Renoir and the dominant themes of his cinema women love children language She explores his life in relation to his films from The 400 Blows to The Man Who Loved Women The most sensitive and intelligent book in the English language about my work François Truffaut Everyone who loves Truffaut will be delighted to welcome this book to their library Milo Forman director of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest and Amadeus Annette Insdorf's book on Truffaut is the best I know Charles Champlin The Los Angeles Times Relevant illuminating clever moving sane intelligible Roger Greenspun film critic A n astute and insightful examination of the director's work along thematic and psychological lines Insdorf carefully weaves a complex matrix of loose chords individual motifs and personal obsessions that amount to a strikingly coherent vision Insdorf's analysis provides the reader with the best examination yet of Truffaut's work Dan Yakir

Film Comment Insdorf succeeds masterfully in fulfilling the purpose of her study of François Truffaut an engaging and sympathetic study Richard Williamson The French Review François Truffaut has been blessed with intelligent and perceptive critics throughout his career Annette Insdorf's new book fits snugly into this tradition of excellence and even goes the earlier studies one better by treating the films with the comprehensiveness they deserve The most striking feature of Insdorf's study is the intense concentration she brings to her discussion of each film Her insights come thick and fast in the best New Critical fashion This is an especially insightful highly intelligent study Peter Brunette Film Quarterly Each chapter in this well researched and informative book contains extended comparisons of Truffaut's films Each aims at specifying the thematic and stylistic continuities that define Truffaut as an auteur Insdorf's mastery of the auteurist approach produces a remarkable synthesis of thematic and stylistic continuities Paul Sandro The French Review Insdorf's forte is comparative exposition and synthetic vision Her early chapters on Truffaut's sources Hitchcock and Renoir and the latter ones on women children and Truffaut autobiographical films are replete with gems of comparative analysis e g her instructive comparison of Rules of the Game and Day For Night and the insightful relating of jazz with Truffaut's own improvisation in early films Francis I Kane Literature Film Quarterly Insdorf's insights regarding the famous films are on the mark and she makes an eloquent case for those not so well thought of Variety

Truffaut Antoine De Baecque, Serge Toubiana, 2022-02-23 One of the most celebrated filmmakers of all time François Truffaut was an intensely private individual who cultivated the public image of a man completely consumed by his craft But his personal story from which he drew extensively to create the characters and plots of his films is itself an extraordinary human drama Now with captivating immediacy Antoine de Baecque and Serge Toubiana give us the definitive story of this beloved artist They begin with the unwanted mischievous child who learned to love movies and books as an escape from sadness and confusion as a boy François came to identify with screen characters and to worship actresses Following his early adult years as a journalist during which he gained fame as France's most iconoclastic film critic the obsessive prodigy began to make films of his own and before he was thirty notched the two masterpieces The 400 Blows and Jules and Jim As Truffaut's dazzling body of work evolves in the shadow of the politics of his day including the student uprisings of 1968 we watch him learning the lessons of his masters Fellini and Hitchcock And we witness the progress of his often tempestuous personal relationships including his violent falling out with Jean Luc Godard who owed Truffaut the idea for Breathless and his rapturous love affairs with the many glamorous actresses he directed among them Jacqueline Bisset and Jeanne Moreau With Fanny Ardant Truffaut had a child only thirteen months before dying of a brain tumor at the age of fifty two Here is a life of astonishing emotional range from the anguish of severe depression to the exaltation of Oscar victory Based on unprecedented access to Truffaut's papers including notes toward an unwritten autobiography de Baecque and Toubiana's richly detailed work is an incomparably authoritative revelation of a singular genius
