Beaulieu, 2012-07-13 Peter D Beaulieu examines the challenge posed by and to modernity and historic Islam as they encounter one another He compares the Western separation of Church and state with the unitary Islamic State and explores the proposed cultural and societal principles of the Second Vatican Council as potentially influencing long term events in both arenas Beaulieu's research is comprehensive and richly documented yet offers an accessible triangular inquiry into the mosque the manger and modernity By restoring a place at the table for Trinitarian Christianity alongside the engulfing monotheism of Islam and the alternative skepticism of Western rationalism this inquiry broadens the pallet of inter religious and intercultural contact points Beyond Secularism and Jihad provides balanced attention to the differences as well as the similarities between Christianity Islam and modernity An emerging theme is natural law which is universal and intrinsic to all mankind and not confined to competing theologies Neglected in the West that it helped create natural law might contribute to the needed grammar for dialogue between the citizens in the West and the followers of Islam

Amazing Grace of Quantum Physics Dillard W. Faries, 2017-11-07 Science and faith have had a long intertwined history The relationship has run the gamut from a total disconnect to an adversarial battleground where proponents of each claim total victory However if God created the physical world and remains active in the physical world we cannot ignore the interaction nor can we assume or expect a world of conflict While nineteenth century physics brought classical physics which quite reasonably divorced God and nature to a culmination twentieth century physics especially quantum physics has opened a new realm of possible interactions Even though one can reasonably say that no one understands quantum physics the fruits of the discipline overflow the cornucopia People of faith can share the feast and people of science are welcome at the table of faith
