The Guns Of Pelembang:

The Guns of Palembang Peter McCurtin, 1978 Rikugun Leland Ness, 2014-12-19 Rikugun Guide to Japanese Ground Forces 1937 1945 is the first nuts and bolts handbook to utilize both the voluminous raw allied intelligence documents and postwar Japanese documentation as primary sources This second volume covers the armament of the ground forces It takes advantage not only of postwar Japanese research but also the extensive technical intelligence efforts of the Allies near the end of the war and the postwar investigations that have heretofore generally been ignored to provide a complete examination of wartime Japanese armament The book is divided into twenty three sections covering all categories including not only the standard arms such as machine guns and coast artillery but also more esoteric items such as bridging chemical weapons and assault equipment Each section provides both production and technical data as well as a discussion of the unique characteristics of each weapon and its place in the force structure accompanied by over 300 photographs and numerous data tables

Sumatra 1944-45 Angus Konstam, 2024-10-24 The first history of how the aircraft of the British Pacific Fleet shattered Japanese oilfields in Sumatra starving Japan of oil and proving how Anglo American navies could fight together With the war in Europe in its final stages by 1944 the Royal Navy was able to put together a major force to join the campaign against Japan The British Pacific Fleet was arguably the most powerful fleet the Royal Navy has ever sent into action In this book renowned naval historian Angus Konstam explores how the first target of British naval power in the Pacific would be the strategically vital oil fields in Japanese occupied Sumatra part of the Dutch East Indies Between April 1944 and January 1945 the task force struck oil fields and production centres Japanese airfields naval facilities and troop concentrations Initially working alongside US Navy carriers and learning their ruthlessly effective fast carrier doctrine the British would end the Sumatra campaign with a powerful fleet of ten carriers of their own Packed with dramatic artwork maps 3D diagrams and archive photos this is the first history of the Sumatra raids a prime example of how naval air power could achieve key strategic ends They also proved that the Allied navies could fight successfully alongside one another paving the way for the BPF's participation in the capture of Okinawa

The Netherlands East Indies Campaign 1941-42 Marc Lohinstein, 2021-06-24 A compact study of one of the less well known campaigns of the Pacific War which featured complex Japanese and Allied operations and included the first use of airborne troops in the war Imperial Japan's campaigns of conquest in late 1941 early 1942 were launched in order to achieve self sufficiency for the Japanese people chiefly in the precious commodity of oil The Netherlands or Dutch East Indies formed one of Japan's primary targets on account of its abundant rubber plantations and oilfields The Japanese despatched an enormous naval task force to support the amphibious landings over the vast terrain of the Netherlands East Indies The combined arms offensive was divided into three groups western centre and eastern The isolated airfields and oilfields were however picked off one by one by the Japanese in the rush to secure the major islands before major Allied reinforcements arrived This superbly illustrated title describes the operational plans and conduct of the fighting by the major parties involved and assesses the performance of the opposing forces on the battlefield bringing to life an often overlooked campaign of the Pacific War A trip to sea, from 1810 to 1815 George Miller,1854 Fortress Kenneth Attiwill,2017-06-28 Fortress The Story of the Siege and Fall of Singapore first published in 1959 is the sobering account of the failed defense of Singapore in late 1941 and early 1942 against the advancing Japanese Army In Fortress author Kenneth Attiwill himself a prisoner of the Japanese for three and a half years recreates in vivid detail the fall of Singapore in World War II the unforgettable atmosphere of chaos misunderstanding panic bombings evacuation of civilians ill trained troops the invasion of Japanese troops and the beginnings of tortures as the Fortress fell Here is an engrossing analysis of the Singapore defeat in strategy caused by the failure of the Chief of Staff in London to activate the British defense in Malaya in the air due to disorganization at Air Command Headquarters on the sea because Japanese efficiency was underestimated and on land through misjudgment of the invasion of Malaya Richly illustrated throughout with 14 pages of maps and photographs Battle for Palembang Terence Kelly,1985 Through the Eyes of the World's Fighter Aces Robert Jackson,2007-11-13 This is the story of the fighter aces who flew throughout the war in many different operational theatres The book opens with the first Polish Aces during the German invasion and continues with Finland's pilots in the Winter War against the Soviets There follows the battle for France with the experiences of RAF Luftwaffe and French Aces and then the legendary Battle of Britain North Africa became a critical area together with the heroic defense of Malta and air battles over Greece and the Balkans that were fought in 1941 The Eastern front opened with operation Barbarossa where German aces were created by the dozen flying superior aircraft against an ill trained Soviet air force and then in the north when pilots battle for air supremacy over Leningrad and the Russian seaports When Japan entered the fray in 1942 their first aces flew over Singapore Java and Sumatra and the early US Marine aces earned their spurs at Guadalcanal Back in Europe RAF fighter pilots were taking the war to the enemy and in the southern theatre the desert and Balkan air forces struck into the southern belly of the Reich After D Day British and American fighter units supported the Allied land advance and also defended London against Hitler's V 1s whilst in the east Soviet aces battled over Berlin In the closing stages of the war Germany introduced its first jet fighter aces and then finally in the days before the atomic bombs we read of the Japanese aces flying in desperate defense of their homeland as it comes under air attack for the first time Japan Runs Wild, 1942-1943 Peter Harmsen,2020-05-12 The author of Storm Clouds Over the Pacific 1931 1941 chronicles Japan's dramatic reversal of fortune as Allied forces gained advantage during WWII In early 1942 the Imperial Japanese Army and Navy were advancing on all fronts humiliating Allied forces throughout the Pacific In a matter of months Japan had conquered an area larger than Hitler's empire at its apex Hawaiians and Australians feared a future under Hirohito The fate of half of mankind was hanging in the balance But by the end of 1943 the tables had turned entirely The American led military machine had kicked into gear and the Japanese were fighting a defensive battle along a frontline that crossed thousands of miles of land and sea In Japan Runs Wild 1942 1943 historian Peter Harmsen details the astonishing transformation that took place in that period setting the Allies on a path to ultimate victory over Japan The second installment of Peter Harmsen s three part history Japan Runs Wild 1942 1943 continues his comprehensive chronicle of the Pacific Theater during the Second World War Giving due emphasis to the Japanese American struggle Harmsen also sheds light on the other peoples involved including the British Australians Soviets Filipinos Indians and Koreans Above all the central importance of China is highlighted in a way that no previous general history of the war against Japan has achieved

The Last Stand of Asian Autonomies Anthony Reid, 1997-09-12 The last century of the exuberantly diverse independence of Asia's smaller states before the colonial embrace of 1860-1900 has been dismissed as a doomed period of stagnation and reaction by colonial nationalist and Marxist historians alike But the newest writing represented here by 17 leading specialists on the different states of Southeast Asia and Choson Korea has discovered in these states an astonishing laboratory of autonomous attempts to grapple with the pressures of modernity
