Secularisation in the Christian World

Michael Snape, 2016-04-01 The power of modernity to secularise has been a foundational idea of the western world Both social science and church history understood that the Christian religion from 1750 was deeply vulnerable to industrial urbanisation and the Enlightenment But as evidence mounts that countries of the European world experienced secularising forces in different ways at different periods the timing and causes of de Christianisation are now widely seen as far from straightforward Secularisation in the Christian World brings together leading scholars in the social history of religion and the sociology of religion to explore what we know about the decline of organised Christianity in Britain Europe the United States Canada and Australia The chapters tackle different strands themes comparisons and territories to demonstrate the diversity of approach thinking and evidence that has emerged in the last 30 years of scholarship into the religious past and present The volume includes both new research and essays of theoretical reflection by the most eminent academics It highlights historians and sociologists in both agreement and dispute With contributors from eight countries the volume also brings together many nations for the first consolidated international consideration of recent themes in de Christianisation With church historians and cultural historians and religious sociologists and sociologists of the godless society this book provides a state of the art guide to secularisation studies

Youth Sport and Spirituality Patrick Kelly S.J., 2015-08-15 One of the ten best recent Catholic sports books America Magazine Unsportsmanlike behavior by student athletes or parents at youth sporting events happens with regularity these days Much recent research reveals that young people are dropping out of sport at alarming rates due to the often toxic elements in the culture of youth sports The timely innovative essays in Youth Sport and Spirituality present a wide ranging overview that draws on resources from Catholic spiritual and theological traditions to address problems such as these as well as opportunities in youth sport in the United States The book consists of two sections In the first prominent scholars in philosophy psychology theology and spirituality reflect on how youth sport contributes to the integral development of the person and his or her grasp of spiritual values The second half of the book consists of chapters written by coaches athletic directors and specialists working with youth coaches These practitioners share how their approaches to working with youth in sport contribute to the integral development of their players and their openness to transcendent values The essays examine coaching as ministry youth sport and moral development and how parents can act as partners in youth sports among other topics The book will interest coaches athletic directors and youth ministers in Catholic elementary and high schools in parish settings as well as undergraduate and graduate students in education who are preparing to teach in Catholic schools Contributors Patrick Kelly SJ Daniel A Dombrowski Nicole M LaVoi Mike McNamee Clark Power David Light Shields Brenda Light Bredemeier Richard R Gaillardetz Kristin Komyatte Sheehan Dobie Moser Jim Yerkovich Sherri Retif James Charles Naggi and Edward Hastings

Martin,2020-03-13 Acting on what started as a hunch Dr Francis Martin has cataloged well over 20 000 distinct approaches to counseling and psychotherapy that are advertised on the webpages of licensed practicing mental health providers No doubt some portion of them are harmful but the sheer volume of advertised practices and techniques often with names deceptively similar to actual evidence based practices should be cause for concern among all stakeholders in the helping professions from educators and researchers to policy makers and insurance companies and especially consumers Based on this significant original study and drawing from other research and supports Therapy Thieves describes a near universal crisis in the field and recommends ways to rescue mental health care from itself The crisis is caused by declining competence among counselors and psychotherapists who have failed to regulate themselves and who therefore deliver inadequate if not harmful services In presenting a simple yet powerful indictment of the field Dr Martin advocates for major reforms in several areas of mental health care including how prospective licensees are trained supervised and licensed a major reworking of professional ethics and the need to establish regulations for mental health care providers In short the book calls for major specific and urgently needed reforms Religion and Mental Health ,1980 References to 1836 journal articles dissertations and books published since 1970 Also contains foreign language titles Focuses on literature dealing with the theoretical and practical relationships between religion and mental health Classified arrangement Each entry gives bibliographical information and abstract Author subject indexes Makers of the Modern Mind: Hans Kung John Kiwiet,2017-01-01 Acclaimed as one of the most influential contemporary Christian thinkers Hans Kung is considered a modern day Luther because of his struggle to reform the Roman Catholic Church especially in seeking to overturn the doctrine of the infallibility of the pope and bishops In this masterful profile John J Kiwiet sheds light on Kung s life his significance as a shaper of modern theology and his call to prioritize Scripture and the Jesus of history The Professionalization of Pastoral Care T. Dale Johnson Jr.,2020-07-21 When the organization and structure of the church in America was altered in the early 1900s to meet modern demands the role of the pastorate became more specialized to adapt to the burdens of the new efficient structure In 1920 Gaines Dobbins utilized the business efficiency model at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary to formulate a distinct ecclesiology Discontent with traditional methods of instruction in theological education Dobbins sought to implement theories and methodologies from modern educationalists He adopted a psychologized educational methodology and utilized the psychology of religion as an empirical measure of the soul human nature and human behavior Use of the social sciences seemed to grant Dobbins as a practitioner academic respectability within the realm of theological education Both the professionalization that resulted from Dobbins s efficiency standards and a working theory of human nature derived from psychological models were synthesized into a specialized system of pastoral care Dobbins followed the new shape of pastoral theology in America adopting Clinical Pastoral Education CPE as the model for pastoral training As a result CPE became an integral part of the curriculum at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for over sixty years and spread to influence many other SBC entities
