KEY TRAITS	5 (STRONG)	3 (AVERAGE)	1 (WEAK)
GRAPHIC ORGANIZER	All aspects of the graphic organizer were completed.	Some aspects of the graphic organizer were missing or incomplete.	Many aspects of the graphic organizer were missing or incomplete.
DEVELOPMENT OF IDEAS	Includes an introductory sentence with title, author, and claim, specific, relevant details, and satisfying concluding sentence.	Includes an introductory sentence with title and author but the claim is unclear. Key points need more support, and concluding sentence summarizes most of the analysis.	The introduction is missing, details and evidence are irrelevant or missing, and there is no concluding sentence.
ORGANIZATION OF IDEAS	Key points and supporting details are organized effectively; transitions successfully show the relationships between ideas.	The organization of key points and details is confusing; more transitions are needed to clarify the relationships between ideas.	Ideas are presented randomly; transitions are not used, making the literary analysis difficult to understand.
LANGUAGE AND CONVENTION	Formal style is used. The paper has no or very few minor mechanical and convention errors, but these errors are hardly noticeable.	Style becomes informal in places. The paper has several noticeable mechanical or grammatical errors, but these errors do not affect the paper's clarity.	Style is inappropriate for literary analysis. The paper has numerous mechanical and grammatical errors that affect the paper's clarity.

Statistical Methods for Meta-Analysis Larry V. Hedges, Ingram Olkin, 2014-06-28 The main purpose of this book is to address the statistical issues for integrating independent studies There exist a number of papers and books that discuss the mechanics of collecting coding and preparing data for a meta analysis and we do not deal with these Because this book concerns methodology the content necessarily is statistical and at times mathematical In order to make the material accessible to a wider audience we have not provided proofs in the text Where proofs are given they are placed as commentary at the end of a chapter These can be omitted at the discretion of the reader Throughout the book we describe computational procedures whenever required Many computations can be completed on a hand calculator whereas some require the use of a standard statistical package such as SAS SPSS or BMD Readers with experience using a statistical package or who conduct analyses such as multiple regression or analysis of variance should be able to carry out the analyses described with the aid of a statistical package

Student and Teacher Writing Motivational Beliefs Steve Graham, Gary A. Troia, Gustaf Bernhard Uno Skar, 2024-06-21 The study of students motivational beliefs about writing and how such beliefs influence writing has increased since the publication of John Hays 1996 model of writing This model emphasized that writers motivational beliefs influence how and what they write Likewise increased attention has been devoted in recent years to how teachers motivational beliefs about writing especially their efficacy to teach writing impact how writing is taught and how students progress as writers As a result there is a need to bring together in a Research Topic studies that examine the role and influence of writing beliefs Historically the psychological study of writing has focused on what students write or the processes they apply when writing Equally important but investigated less often are studies examining how writing is taught and how teachers efforts contribute to students writing What has been less prominent in the psychological study of writing are the underlying motivational beliefs that drive or inhibit students writing or serve as catalysts for teachers actions in the classroom when teaching writing This Research Topic will bring together studies that examine both students and teachers motivational beliefs about teaching writing This will include studies examining the operation of such beliefs how they develop cognitive and affective correlates how writing motivational beliefs can be fostered and how they are related to students writing achievement By focusing on both students and teachers beliefs the Research Topic will provide a more nuanced and broader picture of the role of motivation beliefs in writing and writing instruction This Research Topic includes papers that address students motivational beliefs about writing teachers motivational beliefs about writing or teaching writing Students motivational beliefs about writing include beliefs about the value and utility of writing writing competence attitudes toward writing goal orientation motives for writing identity epistemological underpinnings writing and attributions for success failure as examples Teacher motivational include these same judgements as well as beliefs about their preparation and their students competence and progress as writers to provide additional examples This Research Topic is interested in papers that examine how such beliefs operate develop are related to other cognitive and affective variables how they are impacted by instruction and how they are related to students writing performance Submitted studies can include original research both quantitative qualitative or mixed methods meta analysis and reviews of the literature

The Handbook of School Psychology Cecil R. Reynolds, Terry B.
