D-Day Nicholas A. Veronico, 2019-06-01 Those who witnessed it never forgot it the great armada of Allied ships that filled the English Channel on D Day June 6 1944 From battleships cruisers and destroyers down to the much smaller landing ships and landing craft these nearly 7 000 vessels bombarded the Normandy coast ferried men tanks and equipment across the channel and landed 150 000 troops under withering German fire on Omaha Utah Gold Juno and Sword beaches in a single day In numbers and scope it was the largest seaborne invasion in history Meanwhile some 12 000 aircraft flew above the sea a dizzying assortment of fighters and bombers transports recon craft and gliders Taking off from air fields in England they dropped thousands of paratroopers and even vehicles bombed roads and German positions miles inland provided vital intelligence and attacked any German planes that were able to take to the skies It was the largest single day aerial operation in history And yet these important and impressive aspects of D Day haven't received the coverage they deserve having been overshadowed by the fighting on the beaches Veronico assembles photos of both the air and sea components of the D Day invasion giving the sailors and airmen their due and giving modern readers a vivid sense of what this monumental day was like in the air and at sea

Sand & Steel Peter Caddick-Adams, 2019 Part of a trilogy covering the last year of fighting in the European theater of World War II and in time for the 75th anniversary of D Day Sand and Steel gives us the full story of the Allied invasion of France

South Devon & Dartmoor Hilary Bradt, Janice Booth, Alistair & Gill Campbell, 2024-03-08 This new thoroughly updated third edition of South Devon and Dartmoor is part of Bradt's distinctive Slow Travel series of guides to UK regions offering in depth exploration of one of England's most popular areas Written by resident experts Hilary Bradt

the late Janice Booth and Gill and Alistair Campbell it remains the essential companion to discovering not just the obvious and well known sites but also for getting off the beaten track and understanding what makes this gorgeous part of the country tick Much of the information in Bradt's South Devon and Dartmoor has appeared in no other guidebook apart from previous editions of this book as the authors uncover the lesser known charms of the region as well as different aspects of the more popular places from the English Riviera and South Hams to Salcombe and Dartmoor together with colourful characters from the past folk history and literary links from Agatha Christie to Arthur Conan Doyle The guide has a special emphasis on car free travel walking this edition features a revised selection of routes including miles without stiles accessible Dartmoor walks cycling and river boats as well as local buses including the new Dartmoor Explorer service and trains This edition has a stronger emphasis on local food both in markets and when eating out while the authors have updated their hand picked suggestions for places to eat and drink and for accommodation from idyllically located campsites to boutique B learn what really goes on at a wassail gathering find out what you should do if you're harassed by pixies on Dartmoor and discover unique local events like the annual Orange Race held in Totnes Also included are entertaining and informative stories about historical characters and folklore while small and historic village churches with their idiosyncratic saints and intriguing carvings are described in loving detail
