Early Snohomish Warner Blake, 2007-08 This riverside city was established when a rumor surfaced that a military road would be crossing over the Snohomish River The road never materialized By 1866 the mother city of the new county was little more than a clearing in the woods offering a store and a saloon and was known up and down the river as Cadyville Ten years later the name Snohomish City was established along with the first newspaper the first school and the first literary society in the county Farms logging camps and trading posts throughout the area pivoted around this growing city and manufacturing center Even Seattle was not much larger and offered no more amenities Today 9 000 residents call Snohomish home and as the area develops farther away from the riverside and its historic roots this book invites the reader to pause and remember An Illustrated History of Central Oregon ,1905
