The short stories in this collection take place from the late 1950s to early 1970s. This is the telling of one boy's experiences on one Iowa farm at one point in time. The farm boy stories are told as I remember them. Some are humorous, others nostalgic, and one is brutally honest. Most are about my adventures and misadventures.

(M. L.) Williams, 2017-12-16 Growing up on a farm can be a special experience It can be hard at times because parents expect kids to start helping at an early age But it also can be a great playground a place of adventure and space to wander I wrote this collection of stories as a way to share memories with my children and grandchildren To relay some of my childhood experiences on an Iowa farm that was in our family for more than a hundred years Snippets of some of these stories could be shared around the dining room table or during visits but life sometimes gets busy with harried five minute conversations texts emails and computer smart phone face time Writing this collection has been a way for me to bring back family and friends who have passed on but remain very vivid in my memory It s my way of ensuring some of their stories will live long after I join them Quite a few folks in these stories who are close to my age and younger are still alive I hope I have treated them well and that they enjoy my meanderings down memory lane Most of the stories take place from the late 1950s to early 1970s This is the telling of one boy s experiences mine on one Iowa farm at one point in time It doesn t reflect other farm kids experiences It is not supposed to Every farm and every family is different The farm boy stories are told as I remember them Some are humorous others nostalgic and one is brutally honest Most are about my adventures and misadventures The conversations are reconstructed to the best of my memory and reflect most likely what was said at the time I may have applied some artistic license but not much Some of the experiences were traumatic humorous or sad and were burned into my brain Writing about them has helped me relive those moments If these stories revive memories in others who read this I hope they are pleasant ones
