Social and Political Change in New York's Chinatown Chia-ling Kuo,1977 Social and Political Change in New York's Chinatown Chia-ling Kuo,1977 Voluntary Organizations in the Chinese Diaspora Khun Eng

Kuah-Pearce,Evelyn Du-Dehart,2006-02-01 Do Chinese voluntary organizations continue to have a role in modern societies enmeshed in a globalizing world that questions continuation of the nation state and ethnic identity This book argues that Chinese voluntary organizations continue to play a significant role in both the established and new Chinese communities in the Diaspora They are able to do so because of their ability to transform their organizational structure and functions At the same time they are able to reinvent their own images to suit their co ethnic community and the wider polity The uniqueness of this volume lies in its integration of historical and contemporary approaches to the study of traditional Chinese voluntary organizations in the Diaspora The chapters explore how the Chinese voluntary organizations continue to fulfil the needs of the Chinese community in different parts of the world and do this by both localizing and globalizing their functions and roles in the countries where they have established roots The contributors cover traditional Chinese voluntary organizations from Asia to Australia North America and Europe examining not only their activities in established Chinese communities such as Singapore and Malaysia but also in the new emerging Chinese communities in Canada and Eastern Europe This allows the readers to compare and contrast the voluntary organizations across countries and across time Readership for this book includes scholars and students of Chinese Studies Asian Studies Anthropology Sociology Diaspora Studies History Social Organizations and the general educated Chinese population The Chinese in Vancouver, 1945-80 Wing Chung Ng,2011-11-01 In The Chinese in Vancouver Wing Chung Ng captures the fascinating story of the city's Chinese in their search for identity He juxtaposes the cultural positions of different generations of Chinese immigrants and their Canadian born descendants and unveils the ongoing struggle over the definition of being Chinese It is an engrossing story about cultural identity in the context of migration and settlement where the influence of the native land and the appeal of the host city continued to impinge on the consciousness of the ethnic Chinese The Chinese in Canada is long overdue in view of the many previous studies that tend to describe Chinese people as victims of racial prejudice and discrimination and Chinese identity a matter of Western cultural hegemony Ng's account gives the Chinese people their own voice and shows that the Chinese in Vancouver had much to say and often disagreed about the meaning of being Chinese In his concluding chapter Ng looks beyond the Canadian context by engaging in a comparative discussion of the experiences of ethnic Chinese elsewhere in the diaspora References to the Chinese in various Southeast Asian countries and the U S force a rethinking of Chineseness He ends with reflections about Vancouver's Chinese community since 1980 Unity is Strength Markus Bierkoch,2024-12-02 Migration has been one of the most pressing societal issues throughout history Immigrant associations play a crucial role in understanding this phenomenon They channel migration streams influence the assimilation of their members and serve as representatives of the entire immigrant group in society. However, they remain an understudied subject particularly in historical research. To address this gap, this study examines German immigrant associations in New York from the 1890s to the 1930s. Through an innovative combination of statistical and textual analyses, it explores the class composition of these associations, their intricate system of mutual aid, and their political activities. This study offers insights into how specific socio-economic motivations influenced immigrant organization and collective action, including aspects such as long-distance nationalism and cross-border ethnic identity. Ultimately, based on these findings, this study demonstrates that immigrant associations played a crucial role in helping their members adapt to a new social and economic environment. Additionally, it shows why and how immigrant associations significantly shaped the image of German immigrants in American social and political life.

Still the Golden Door David M. Reimers, 1992. This work updates an established American textbook on immigration and ethnic history, demonstrating the post-war shift from European to Third World immigrants. Extensive revisions include a discussion of undocumented immigration and the Simpson-Rodino Bill. All the important events of the last five years, especially the 1990 Immigration Act, are presented. The author examines the changes in refugee status and highlights the new wave of East European and Soviet immigrants to the USA.

Civic Engagements Caroline Brettell, Deborah Reed-Danahay, 2011-10-05. This work examines how Indian and Vietnamese immigrants in the Dallas-Arlington-Fort Worth area of Texas learn and practice civic engagement.

All about Science Maria Burguete, Lui Lam, 2014. There is a lot of confusion and misconception concerning science. The nature and contents of science is an unsettled problem. For example, Thales of 2,600 years ago is recognized as the father of science, but the word science was introduced only in the 14th century; the definition of science is often avoided in books about philosophy of science. This book aims to clear up all these confusions and present new developments in the philosophy, history, sociology, and communication of science. It also aims to showcase the achievement of China's top scholars in these areas. The 18 chapters are divided into five parts, written by prominent scholars including the Nobel laureate Robin Warren, sociologist Harry Collins, and physicist-turned-historian Dietrich Stauffer.

Contents: Preface, About Science, 1. Basics of Knowledge, Nature Science, and Science, Lui Lam; About Science, 2. Philosophy, History, Sociology, and Communication, Lui Lam; Philosophy of Science, Towards a Phenomenological Philosophy of Science, Guo Sheng Wu; The Predicament of Scientific Culture in Ancient China, Hong Sheng Wang; What Do Scientists Know, Nigel Sanitt; How to Deal with the Whole: Two Kinds of Holism in Methodology, Jin Yang Liu; History of Science, Helicobacter: The Ease and Difficulty of a New Discovery, Robin Warren; Science in Victorian Era, New Observations on Two Old Theses, Dun Liu; Medical Studies in Portugal Around 1911, Maria Burguete; The Founding of the International Liquid Crystal Society, Lui Lam; Sociology of Science, Three Waves in Science Studies, Harry Collins; Solitons and Revolution in China, 1978-1983, Lui Lam; Scientific Culture in Contemporary China, Bing Liu and Mei Fang Zhang.
