Leaving Home David P. Celani,2005-01-19 Why after a childhood of emotional neglect and abuse would a man move next door to the very parents who caused him pain And how can a woman emerge from her mother s control in order to form healthy adult relationships Giving up family attachments that failed to meet our needs as children David Celani argues is the hardest psychological task an adult can undertake Yet the reality is that many adults re create the most painful aspects of their early relationships with their parents in new relationships with peers and romantic partners frustrating themselves and discouraging them from leaving their family of origin Leaving Home emphasizes the life saving benefits of separating from destructive parents and offers a viable program for personal emancipation Celani s program is based on Object Relations Theory a branch of psychoanalysis developed by Scottish analyst Ronald Fairbairn The human personality Fairbairn argued is not the result of inherited and thus immutable instincts Rather the developing child builds internal relational templates that guide his future interactions with others based on the conscious and unconscious memories he internalized from his primary relationship the one he experienced with his parents While a child s attachment to parents who were neglectful or even abusive is not uncommon there is a way out Articulate sensitive and replete with examples from Celani s twenty six years of clinical practice this book outlines the practical steps to leaving home When Your Parents Call It Quits NavPress Publishing Group,1991-03-01 I'm Quitting My Parents Nakia Montgomery,2022 "You'Re Not My Real Dad!" Rich Reeder,2019-10-17 After years and years of fighting arguing drug over doses and suicide threats we had no idea of how we could make it through the next day We were being held hostage by my 19 year old step daughter who would threaten to kill herself if she didn t get what she wanted We couldn t just give into her nor could we not take her threats seriously In the midst of yet another argument she played the I ll kill myself card again Being beyond the point of extreme frustration and hopelessness I got up and walked calmly to our closet returning with my gun I placed the gun in her lap looked into her eyes and said Go ahead just do it I promised her we would give her a nice funeral and take good care of her remains I then said just do it or shut up about it She paused for a few moments and looked at the gun We were a normal middle class family living in the suburbs trying to have a regular life like anyone else With years and years of fighting and battling a normal life is one we didn t know would ever be possible I was first a married guy without kids then a step dad and eventually a father I have seen the effects of divorce from many angles and the toll it takes on entire families and the kids I saw it in my own home in ways I would never have believed Mix in some mental issues and it was a raging battle Having experienced all that I want to encourage families to think hard about what a family breakup can do to the family at large My hope is that sharing my experiences might help families stick it out and reap the blessing of not having given up
