Austin, 2013-09-10 The fledgling United States struggled to keep its freedom from Great Britain during the War of 1812 but St Lawrence County in upstate New York played a divided role The region shared a border as well as close personal and business associations with British Canada and opposed the American embargo that disrupted these relationships While some St Lawrence men fought bravely for America smuggling was a common way of life Several small battles and skirmishes took place along the river and a local merchant even influenced President Madison's decision making Local historian John Austin recounts these and other events as well as the fascinating North Country characters who influenced them in this book on St Lawrence County in the War of 1812 Brief Historical Sketch of St. Lawrence Parish, Lawrenceburg, Indiana St. Lawrence Church (Lawrenceburg, Ind.), 1942 A Correspondence between the Vicar of St. Lawrence's [i.e. J. Ball] and the Vicar and Curates of St. Mary's, Reading, concerning the clerical visitation of the United National Schools of the above parishes John BALL (Vicar of St. Lawrence's, Reading.), 1844 The St. Lawrence Run Stephen F. Wilcox, 1990 A History of St. Lawrence and Franklin Counties, New York, from the Earliest Period to the Present Time Franklin Benjamin Hough, 1970 Facsimile reproduction with an added foreword sponsored by the St Lawrence County Historical Association Franklin County Historical and Museum Society A History of St. Lawrence and Franklin Counties, New York Franklin Benjamin Hough, 2017-11-20 Excerpt from A History of St Lawrence and Franklin Counties New York From the Earliest Period to the Present Time In tracing the birth and infancy of our settlements through the weakness and perhaps the waywardness of inexperienced youth up to the maturity of manhood it has been our uniform desire to render impartial justice to the merits of those to whom belongs the credit of having met and overcome the difficulties of a new country and through long course of years with hope deferred have waited and labored for the accomplishment of those objects which were calculated to secure a lasting benefit to the country About 1818 the first attempt was made to establish the dairy interest a branch of agriculture which will to a considerable degree supersede every other as the broken nature of the surface in towns underlaid by primary rock renders pasturage the most profitable use to which much of the land can be applied The direct access to the markets at all times which is now enjoyed enables the farmer to avail himself of the calls of the market and derive every advantage that has hitherto been felt only by those living in the vicinity of large cities Although butter and cheese are required for consumption by millions yet but a comparatively small part of our country is capable of producing them The country that yields these articles is mainly limited to the northern border of the Union the climate of the central and southern portions not being adapted to the purpose This species of husbandry likewise possesses the elements of perpetuity within itself from the very small amount of the produce of fields that are taken away Of other sources of wealth our counties possess an enviable share when these resources come to be known and appreciated they can not but be improved The great and increasing amount of freight business done on the Northern railroad and the corresponding addition to the commerce of the river and lakes to meet this road bear evidence that the public are beginning to realize the advantages of the communication and to reap the benefits to be derived from it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
