When Moses Meets Aaron Susan Beaumont, Gil Rendle, 2007-10-15 With the number of large congregations

rising in the U S these congregations are increasingly dependent upon a greater number of staff to meet the needs of their diverse collection of members As leaders of multi staff teams senior clergy must play the dual role of both Moses and Aaron both visionary and detail oriented leader in order for their large congregations to thrive They need to be skilled with the tools of human resource management while at the same time setting a vision and inspiring both staff and congregation Unfortunately until now there have been few resources for senior clergy who lead multi staff teams Working without adequate models and tools senior clergy of large congregations often find themselves with passionate dedicated staff members who are moving in different directions competing over limited resources and attention They end up with questions of how to evaluate the performance of staff and direct their efforts They find themselves using time attention and resources to care for staff rather than using staff as a resource to care for the mission of the congregation Longtime Alban senior consultant Gil Rendle and Alban senior consultant Susan Beaumont have developed When Moses Meets Aaron to help clergy responsible for several member staff teams navigate these unknown waters They have taken the best of human resource practices and immersed them in a congregational context providing a comprehensive manual for supervising motivating and coordinating staff teams Rendle and Beaumont give both detailed and big picture guidance on hiring job descriptions supervision performance evaluation staff team design difficult staff behavior and more Their combined experience in consulting and training with staff and leaders of large congregations proves invaluable in this manual for today s leadership demands

Biblical Pastors Were Not and Are Not CEOs. James D. Martin, 2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock
