fictions including many by modern history's most influential authors no full length study has dedicated itself specifically to theatre fiction in fact there has not even been a recognized name for the phenomenon Focusing on Britain where most of the world's theatre novels have been produced and commencing in the late nineteenth century when theatre increasingly took on major roles in novels Theatre Fiction in Britain argues for the benefits of considering these works in relation to each other to a history of development and to the theatre of their time New modes of intermedial analysis are modelled through close studies of Henry James Somerset Maugham Virginia Woolf J B Priestley Ngaio Marsh Angela Carter and Doris Lessing all of whom were deeply involved in the theatre world as playwrights directors reviewers and theorists Drawing as much on theatre scholarship as on literary theory Theatre Fiction in Britain presents theatre fiction as one of the past century's most vital means of exploring reconsidering and bringing forth theatre's potentials
