Staging A Revolution The Art Of Persuasion In The Islamic Republic Of Iran:

Staging a Revolution Peter J. Chelkowski, Hamid Dabashi, 2000 The first book to examine this colossal political event through the images that set it in motion With previously unpublished historical sources and essays by Peter Chelkowski and Hamid Dabashi      Senses of Mourning Babak Rahimi, 2026-01-06 No detailed description available for Senses of Mourning

The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Middle-Eastern and North African History Jens Hanssen, Amal N. Ghazal, 2021 Features a mix of junior and senior scholars based in the Middle East South East Asia Australia North America and Europe Develops multidisciplinary approaches to history including environmental studies social anthropology law gender political science sociology religious studies and media studies Book jacket      The Unthinkable Revolution in Iran Charles Kurzman, 2005-09-06 The shah of Iran Mohammad Reza Pahlavi would remain on the throne for the foreseeable future This was the firm conclusion of a top secret CIA analysis issued in October 1978 One hundred days later the shah despite his massive military fearsome security police and superpower support was overthrown by a popular and largely peaceful revolution But the CIA was not alone in its myopia as Charles Kurzman reveals in this penetrating work Iranians themselves except for a tiny minority considered a revolution inconceivable until it actually occurred Revisiting the circumstances surrounding the fall of the shah Kurzman offers rare insight into the nature and evolution of the Iranian revolution and into the ultimate unpredictability of protest movements in general As one Iranian recalls The future was up in the air Through interviews and eyewitness accounts declassified security documents and underground pamphlets Kurzman documents the overwhelming sense of confusion that gripped pre revolutionary Iran and that characterizes major protest movements His book provides a striking picture of the chaotic conditions under which Iranians acted participating in protest only when they expected others to do so too the process approaching critical mass in unforeseen and unforeseeable ways Only when large numbers of Iranians began to think the unthinkable in the words of the U S ambassador did revolutionary expectations become a self fulfilling prophecy A corrective to 20 20 hindsight this book reveals shortcomings of analyses that make the Iranian revolution or any major protest movement seem inevitable in retrospect      Understanding and Teaching the Modern Middle East Omnia El Shakry, 2020-10-20 Many students learn about the Middle East through a sprinkling of information and generalizations deriving largely from media treatments of current events This scattershot approach can propagate bias and misconceptions that inhibit students abilities to examine this vitally important part of the world Understanding and Teaching the Modern Middle East moves away from the Orientalist frameworks that have dominated the West s understanding of the region offering a range of fresh interpretations and approaches for teachers The volume brings together experts on the rich intellectual cultural social and political history of the Middle East providing necessary historical context to familiarize teachers with the latest scholarship Each chapter includes easy to explore sources to supplement any curriculum focusing on valuable and controversial themes that may prove pedagogically challenging including colonization and decolonization the

1979 Iranian revolution and the US led war on terror By presenting multiple viewpoints the book will function as a springboard for instructors hoping to encourage students to negotiate the various contradictions in historical study

Theater State and the Formation of Early Modern Public Sphere in Iran Babak Rahimi, 2011-11-11 This first systematic study of a wide range of Persian and European archival and primary sources analyzes how the Muharram rituals changed from being an originally devotional practice to public events of political significance setting the stage for the emergence of the early modern Iranian public sphere in the Safavid period

The State of Resistance Assal Rad, 2022-08-25 While the Iranian nation state has long captivated the attention of our media and politics this book examines a country that is often misunderstood and explores forgotten aspects of the debate Using innovative multi disciplinary methods it investigates the formation of an Iranian national identity over the last century and significantly the role of Iranian people in defining the contours of that identity By employing popular culture as an archive of study Assal Rad aims to rediscover the ordinary Iranian in studies of contemporary Iran demonstrating how identity was shaped by music literature and film Both accessible in style and meticulously researched Rad s work cultivates a more holistic picture of Iranian politics policy and society showing how the Iran of the past is intimately connected to that of the present

The Power and the People Charles Tripp, 2013-02-25 This book is about power The power wielded over others by absolute monarchs tyrannical totalitarian regimes and military occupiers and the power of the people who resist and deny their rulers claims to that authority by whatever means The extraordinary events in the Middle East in 2011 offered a vivid example of how non violent demonstration can topple seemingly invincible rulers This book considers the ways in which the people have united to unseat their oppressors and fight against the status quo and probes the relationship between power and forms of resistance It also examines how common experiences of violence and repression create new collective identities This brilliant yet unsettling book affords a panoramic view of the twentieth and twenty first century Middle East through occupation oppression and political resistance

Embodied Testimonies, Gendered Memories, and the Poetics of Trauma Maryam Ghodrati, Rachel R. Dale, 2024-07-16 Embodied Testimonies Gendered Memories and the Poetics of Trauma is a collection of academic essays that uses mainstream and postcolonial trauma theory in the analysis of literary and artistic representations of traumatic history This collection prioritizes historical and personal accounts from the perspectives of Iranian Arab Jewish and Black women to highlight the ways in which gender race and religion shape experiences of trauma By drawing attention to individual experiences of suffering both visible and invisible the authors reconsider the basis for collective and socio political engagement The book re examines established postcolonial trauma theory which can occasionally overemphasize the collectivity of traumatic experience and subsume individual stories under ideological nationalism Each chapter in this collection explores methods of balancing the pain of the individual and the community through analyses of art literature and film Together these chapters demonstrate the importance of embracing a dynamic and diverse approach to the representation of trauma that makes marginalized survivors visible while also recognizing the complexities of gendered and racialized experiences of trauma

The Transnational Mosque Kishwar Rizvi, 2015-10-08 Kishwar Rizvi drawing on the multifaceted history of the Middle East offers a richly illustrated analysis of the role of transnational mosques in the construction of contemporary Muslim identity As Rizvi explains transnational mosques are structures built through the support of both government sponsorship whether in the home country or abroad and diverse transnational networks By concentrating on mosques especially those built at the turn of the twenty first century as the epitome of Islamic architecture Rizvi elucidates their significance as sites for both the validation of religious praxis and the construction of national and religious ideologies Rizvi delineates the transnational religious political economic and architectural networks supporting mosques in Saudi Arabia Iran Turkey and the United Arab Emirates as well as in countries within their spheres of influence such as Pakistan Syria and Turkmenistan She discerns how the buildings feature architectural designs that traverse geographic and temporal distances gesturing to far flung places and times for inspiration Digging deeper however Rizvi reveals significant diversity among the mosques whether in a Wahabi Sunni kingdom a Shi i theocratic government or a republic balancing secularism and moderate Islam that repudiates representations of Islam as a monolith Mosques reveal alliances and contests for influence among multinational corporations nations and communities of belief Rizvi shows and her work demonstrates how the built environment is a critical resource for understanding culture and politics in the contemporary Middle East and the Islamic world
