Love and its Critics Michael Bryson, Arpi Movsesian, 2017-07-10 This book is a history of love and the challenge love offers to the laws and customs of its times and places as told through poetry from the Song of Songs to John Milton's Paradise Lost It is also an account of the critical reception afforded to such literature and the ways in which criticism has attempted to stifle this challenge Bryson and Movsesian argue that the poetry they explore celebrates and reinvents the love the troubadour poets of the eleventh and twelfth centuries called fin amor love as an end in itself mutual and freely chosen even in the face of social religious or political retribution Neither eros nor agape neither exclusively of the body nor solely of the spirit this love is a middle path Alongside this tradition has grown a critical movement that employs a hermeneutics of suspicion in Paul Ricoeur's phrase to claim that passionate love poetry is not what it seems and should be properly understood as worship of God subordination to Empire or an entanglement with the structures of language itself in short the very things it resists The book engages with some of the seminal literature of the Western canon including the Bible the poetry of Ovid and works by English authors such as William Shakespeare and John Donne and with criticism that stretches from the earliest readings of the Song of Songs to contemporary academic literature Lively and enjoyable in its style it attempts to restore a sense of pleasure to the reading of poetry and to puncture critical insistence that literature must be outwitted It will be of value to professional graduate and advanced undergraduate scholars of literature and to the educated general reader interested in treatments of love in poetry throughout history The Irish Play on the New York Stage, 1874-1966 John P. Harrington, 2014-07-11 Over the years American especially New York audiences have evolved a consistent set of expectations for the Irish play Traditionally the term implied a specific subject matter invariably rural and Catholic and embodied a reductive notion of Irish drama and society This view continues to influence the types of Irish drama produced in the United States today By examining seven different opening nights in New York theaters over the course of the last century John Harrington considers the reception of Irish drama on the American stage and explores the complex interplay between drama and audience expectations All of these productions provoked some form of public disagreement when they were first staged in New York ranging from the confrontation between Shaw and the Society for the Suppression of Vice to the intellectual outcry provoked by billing Waiting for Godot as the laugh sensation of two continents The inaugural volume in the series Irish Literature History and Culture The Irish Play on the New York Stage explores the New York premieres of The Shaughraun 1874 Mrs Warren's Profession 1905 The Playboy of the Western World 1911 Exiles 1925 Within the Gates 1934 Waiting for Godot 1956 and Philadelphia Here I Come 1966 Contemporary Women Playwrights Penny Farfan, Lesley Ferris, 2014-01-23 Breaking new ground in this century this wide ranging collection of essays is the first of its kind to address the work of contemporary international women playwrights The book considers the work of established playwrights such as Caryl Churchill Marie Clements Lara Foot Newton Maria Irene Fornes Sarah Kane Lisa Kron Young Jean Lee Lynn Nottage Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Caridad Svich and Judith Thompson but it also foregrounds important plays by many emerging writers Divided into three sections Histories Conflicts and Genres the book explores such topics as the feminist history play solo performance transcultural dramaturgies the identity play the gendered terrain of war and eco drama and encompasses work from the United States Canada Latin America Oceania South Africa Egypt and the United Kingdom With contributions from leading international scholars and an introductory overview of the concerns and challenges facing women playwrights in this new century Contemporary Women Playwrights explores the diversity and power of women's playwriting since 1990 highlighting key voices and examining crucial critical and theoretical developments within the field The Oxford Handbook of the Georgian Theatre 1737-1832 Julia Swindells, David Francis Taylor, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of the Georgian Theatre 1737-1832 provides a comprehensive guide to theatre of the Georgian era across the range of dramatic forms Active Speech Úna Kealy, Kate McCarthy, 2025-04-07 Active Speech is a groundbreaking collection of scholarly essays and practitioner interviews focused on the work of Irish playwright Teresa Deevy Acts of recovery in the 1980s and 1990s challenged Deevy's exclusion from the literary canon reclaiming her contributions as significant to Irish drama and theatre The recent resurgence of scholarship and productions evidences that as a deafened woman and Irish playwright Deevy's creative power continues to disrupt and tilt the canon of Irish drama theatre and performance Essays within the collection explore how Deevy's work interrogates early to mid twentieth century Irish social norms and ideologies and provide a rich context for understanding her plays The collection highlights the interdisciplinary nature of research on Deevy and offers insights on her work through archival research literary analysis and practitioner perspectives from Deaf and hearing theatremakers One of the collection's strengths lies in its collaborative and inclusive approach showcasing diverse methodologies and rigorous scholarship The chapters on archival research and practitioner perspectives offer compelling models and avenues for future studies This volume is an essential resource for scholars educators and theatremakers alike

Dorothy Hewett's Drama, Memory and Australian Theatre Peter Beaglehole,2023-09-29 When Dorothy Hewett joked about needing a face lift and sex change to improve her standing she drew attention to forces that shaped the production and reception of her drama Drawing on production of her plays over four decades and interviews with Hewett's collaborators this book reveals how cultural memories in theatre solidify and dissolve Viewing theatre production as a mode of remembrance Beaglehole grapples with Hewett as a divisive figure who was ahead of a conservative Australia Revisiting frequently produced plays including chapters on The Man from Mukinupin and The Chapel Perilous as well as rarely produced works including Nowhere and The Tatty Hollow Story this book articulates the ongoing relevance of Hewett's drama to the history of theatre in Australia
