Golsan, 2022-06-29 The trial of former SS lieutenant and Gestapo chief Klaus Barbie was France s first trial for crimes against humanity Known as the Butcher of Lyon during the Nazi occupation of that city from 1942 to 1944 Barbie tortured deported and murdered thousands of Jews and Resistance fighters Following a lengthy investigation and the overcoming of numerous legal and other obstacles the trial began in 1987 and attracted global attention Justice in Lyon is the first comprehensive history of the Barbie trial including the investigation leading up to it the legal background to the case and the hurdles the prosecution had to clear in order to bring Barbie to justice Richard J Golsan examines the strategies used by the defence the prosecution and the lawyers who represented Barbie s many victims at the trial The book draws from press coverage articles and books about Barbie and the trial published at the time as well as recently released archival sources and the personal archives of lawyers at the trial Making the case that despite the views of its many critics the Barbie trial was a success in legal historical and pedagogical terms Justice in Lyon details how the trial has had a positive impact on French and international law governing crimes against humanity Heideggerian Marxism Herbert Marcuse, 2005-01-01 The Frankfurt School philosopher Herbert Marcuse 1898 1979 studied with Martin Heidegger at Freiburg University from 1928 to 1932 and completed a dissertation on Hegel s theory of historicity under Heidegger s supervision During these years Marcuse wrote a number of provocative philosophical essays experimenting with the possibilities of Heideggerian Marxism For a time he believed that Heidegger's ideas could revitalize Marxism providing a dimension of experiential concreteness that was sorely lacking in the German Idealist tradition Ultimately two events deterred Marcuse from completing this program the 1932 publication of Marx's early economic and philosophical manuscripts and Heidegger's conversion to Nazism a year later Heideggerian Marxism offers rich and fascinating testimony concerning the first attempt to fuse Marxism and existentialism These essays offer invaluable insight concerning Marcuse's early philosophical evolution They document one of the century's most important Marxist philosophers attempting to respond to the crisis of Marxism the failure of the European revolution coupled with the growing repression in the USSR In response Marcuse contrived an imaginative and original theoretical synthesis existential Marxism

Sowjetisierung zu mobilisieren Diese Freundschaftspropaganda für die Sowjetunion steht im Zentrum der Studie In transnationaler Perspektive werden die parteistaatlichen Apparate der Herrschaftsdiskurs die Strukturen der Öffentlichkeit und die gesellschaftliche Rezeption der Propaganda untersucht Der Autor analysiert insbesondere die Rede über die Sowjetunion die Erfindung der Freundschaft in den vierziger Jahren den Führerkult um Stalin und die Herrschaftskrisen der Jahre 1953 und 1956 Abschliessend fragt er nach der Wirkungsmacht von Propaganda in der kommunistischen Diktatur

Shin,Daniel Sneider,2014-04-01 The legacy of the Second World War has been like the war itself an international phenomenon In both Europe and Asia common questions of criminality guilt and collaboration have intersected with history and politics on the local level to shape the way that wartime experience has been memorialized reinterpreted and used By directly comparing European and Asian legacies Confronting Memories of World War II provides unique insight into the way that World War II continues to influence contemporary attitudes and politics on a global scale The collection brings together experts from a variety of disciplines and perspectives to explore the often overlooked commonalities between European and Asian handling of memories and reflections about guilt These commonalities suggest new understandings of the war's legacy and the continuing impact of historical trauma Memory, History, Nation Susannah Radstone,2017-09-04 In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent This interdisciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory The chapters in this volume offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book Topics covered range from the Basque country to Cambodia from Hungary to South Africa from the Finnish Civil War to the cult Jim Jarmusch movie Dead Man from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame to Australia Part I Transforming Memory is concerned primarily with the social and personal transmission of memory across time and generations Part II Remembering Suffering Trauma and History brings the after effects of catastrophe to the fore Part III Patterning the National Past the relation between nation and memory is the central issue Part IV And Then Silence reflects on the complex and multiple meaning of silence and oblivion wherein amnesia is often used as a figure for the denial of shamefu

The Partisan Counter-Archive Gal Kirn, 2020-07-20 Mere decades after the dissolution of Yugoslavia the promise of European democracy seems to be out of joint What has become of the once shared memory of victory over fascism Historical revisionism and nationalist propaganda in the post Yugoslav context have tried to eradicate the legacy of partisan and socialist struggles while Yugonostalgia commodifies the partisan socialist past It is against these dominant archives that this book launches the partisan counter archive highlighting the symbolic power of artistic works that echo and envision partisan legacy and rupture It comprises a body of works that emerged either during the people s liberation struggle or in later socialist periods tracing a counter archival surplus and revolutionary remainder that invents alternative protocols of remembrance and commemoration The book covers rich counter archival material from partisan poems graphic works and photography to monuments and films and ends by describing the recent revisionist undoing of the partisan past It contributes to the Yugoslav politico aesthetical history of the oppressed as an alternative journey to the partisan past that retrieves revolutionary resources from the past for the present
