Stamping Grounds:

Home Ground Andrew Stachulski, 2012-08-08 The essence of Home Ground is a collection of twenty walks ranging from about five to fifteen miles in length situated in the North West of England The criterion for selection is that each walk must be situated in whole or in part on Ordnance Survey 1 50 000 Landranger map no 103 Blackburn and Burnley This was the map used by the author when he first began to explore the area almost fifty years ago and these long personal associations heightened by a long absence from the area make this truly his home ground Within this relatively small area there is a rich variety of beautiful scenery largely unsung all lying within some twenty miles of industrial East Lancashire From the suburbs of Blackburn to the fringe of the Yorkshire Dales from the sweeping fells of the Forest of Bowland to the wooded valleys and heights of Calderdale these walks have something to offer to walkers of practically all tastes Both the Forest of Bowland and the Pennine Way feature strongly on the map and in the book and extra sections discuss these features Especially the Forest of Bowland recognized as an area of outstanding national beauty but not a national park is introduced in some detail as its charm and many opportunities for the walker and day visitor are still little known The Pennine Way which features in three of the walks is mentioned more autobiographically as the author recalls his own experience of the Way and its wider relationship to Northern England About the Author Andrew Stachulski was born in Blackburn in 1950 the son of a Polish father and English mother and grew up in nearby Great Harwood He was educated at Accrington Grammar School from 1961 to 1968 when he gained entrance to read Natural Sciences at Fitzwilliam College Cambridge He graduated with firstclass honours in 1971 and after winning a senior scholarship he remained at the college to study for a Ph D under the supervision of Professor Alan now Sir Alan Battersby Following the completion of his doctorate in 1974 he held postdoctoral fellowships with the Medical Research Council and at Jesus College Oxford until 1978 There followed a long period of employment in the chemical industry first with Beecham Pharmaceuticals later SmithKline Beecham and then Ultrafine Chemicals Manchester In 2001 he fulfilled a longheld ambition by returning to academic life at the University of Liverpool becoming a senior lecturer in 2003 Recently Jan 2010 he moved to take up a senior research fellowship at the University of Oxford Walking has always been a great love of his life beginning in the Ribble Valley and Pendle country of his native Lancashire In the mid 1970s he completed a number of Britain s longdistance footpaths the Pennine Way Offa s Dyke Path and Coast to Coast walk accompanied by college friends Subsequently he climbed all the principal fells of the Lake District where he often returns and from 1981 again with a college friend he began to climb in the Scottish Highlands In 2003 he completed the circuit of all the Munros the separate Scottish mountains of 3 000 ft or greater height His first walks were planned with the aid of the old one inch to one mile Ordnance Survey map of Blackburn and Burnley and that is truly his home ground It was particularly following his return to the North in 1991 then living in Greater Manchester that this book came to be planned Old walks familiar from childhood in the Ribble and Hodder valleys Pendle country South Pennines and the Forest of Bowland were revisited and built on and many new ones were added From these the twenty walks featured in this book have been selected walks which appeal personally to the author through their beauty or special associations or which in his view speak most clearly of the characteristics of the area

Us Zaffar Kunial,2018-07-03 Us is the eloquent and affecting debut from the talented Zaffar Kunial In a series of approachable lyric narratives the poems in Kunial s hypnotic collection look with a tender toughness at his upbringing by his English mother and Lahore based Kashmiri father and the distances his own life has had to travel in between With pinpoint precision Kunial unlocks his familial and national languages to examine worlds to which he at once belongs and remains simultaneously estranged Already an acknowledged star of the Faber New Poets scheme Kunial has won admirers and awards in such measure as to ensure that Us will be one of the most talked about debuts in recent times

Shifting Ground Ruth M. McVeigh,2006-07-19 This autobiography traces the authors tempestuous 22 year marriage to an undiagnosed manic depressive Bipolar Affective Disorder with whom she raised two children Throughout the years the emotional and geographical ground under the authors feet kept shifting There were travels adventures job changes and financial disasters love and fun but also violence and pain Throughout this story the benchmarks of manic depression can be clearly identified as can the repercussions on relationships and family life Two years in Guyana South America provided memories no one else could share and kept the couple close when circumstances tended to separate them They camped and canoed in isolated regions of Algonquin Park Ontario explored the streets of London England and beach combed on Vancouver Islands west coast In addition to the unhappy and perplexing aspects of marriage to a manic depressive this book illustrates the positive side of life with a partner who does not fear consequences who is adventurous and willing to risk

African Game Trails Theodore Roosevelt, 1919

The Railroad Telegrapher, 1921

The Butterfly for Boomers Doug McGuinn, 2012-11-19 Writing this book has helped me psychologically It was in part written to help me deal with the death of my eldest son Jamie who was killed at the age of 23 on October 5 2006 the day before my 59th birthday The seed for this book was planted in my head while I was practicing my kick with a kickboard at the swimming pool at the gym I go to For some reason I had this crazy idea of quitting teaching and becoming a lifeguard The idea of sitting high up there in a lifeguard stand and thinking great thoughts between heroic rescues of saving people from drowning really appealed to me This book is sort of a reverse coming of age story maybe a going of age story In it are a series of essays about my growing up and my growing old as well as an on going novella based loosely on my swim clinics

Over Her Dear Body Richard S. Prather, 2014-04-01 Dancing the fox trot with a client could be considered unethical then again a lot of what my job leads me to do is unethical but I believe in adding a personal touch to my work And boy did that ferocious feline of a lady make me crazy about my job After a while our rhythmic anatomy lesson turned dirty with an unfriendly gangster pointed his pistol my way They want me Shell Scott to be the headline in the obituaries section and all I want to do is turn off that dancing music and run to save my life Over Her Dear Body is the 19th book in the Shell Scott Mysteries but you may enjoy reading the series in any order Mammal Societies Tim Clutton-Brock,2016-04-25 The book aims to integrate our understanding of mammalian societies into a novel synthesis that is relevant to behavioural ecologists ecologists and anthropologists It adopts a coherent structure that deals initially with the characteristics and strategies of females before covering those of males cooperative societies and hominid societies It reviews our current understanding both of the structure of societies and of the strategies of individuals it combines coverage of relevant areas of theory with coverage of interspecific comparisons intraspecific comparisons and experiments it explores both evolutionary causes of different traits and their ecological consequences and it integrates research on different groups of mammals with research on primates and humans and attempts to put research on human societies into a broader perspective Profiles of American / Canadian
