New York Magazine, 1988-11-28 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Reports from Committees Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1872 Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Walter A. Elwell, 2001-05 This thoroughly updated edition of a standard reference tool covers systematic historical and philosophical theology as well as theological ethics Liverpool and Manchester Photographic Journal, 1902 The Gardeners' Chronicle and Agricultural Gazette, 1848 Lutheran Evangelist, 1900 New-York Observer, 1905 Montgomery Ward Montgomery Ward, 1925 Baltimore and Ohio Magazine, 1920 Baltimore and Ohio Employes Magazine, 1920 New York Magazine, 1988-08-29 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1988-10-10 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Bright Nails Scattered on the Ground Allen R. Grossman, 1986 A series of poems traces the course of a love affair from both the man's and the woman's point of view
Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape John Allman, 1986 Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape John Allman's third collection of poems is a book as remarkable for its lyricism as it is for its capaciousness for there seems to be no area of thought no branch of learning no dark region of the mind into which the poet is unwilling to delve His recent Clio's Children Dostoevsky at Semyonov Square and Other Poems is a reminder as the title implies that history is a narrative art In his newest book Allman reflects on art and nature love and death the dualities that animate our common humanity The poems in Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape look back at one level to the mutable mythic cosmos of Ovid as well as Lucretius universe of benign random change But to these ancient considerations Allman brings the insights indeed the language of modern science and evolution creating a speculative aesthetic appropriate to the awesome possibilities of the atomic age I would say Allman observes that Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape is about nature that the poems speak in the complementary idioms of art and science in an attempt to comprehend nature that love recapitulates all life forms and that love finally is the only ground we stand on the only steadiness beneath us earned by us yet strangely given as we sing of glory and grief John Allman's previous books of poems are Walking Four Ways in the Wind Princeton University Press 1979 and Clio's Children New Directions 1985 He is a professor of English at Rockland Community College State University of New York Tian Wen Yuan Qu, 1986 Describes the historical background of the poem and poses questions about Chinese mythology and the nature of the universe That's Life William Herrick, 1985 In That's Life William Herrick's view of humanity is unsparing yet compassionate He sees life as commitment to ideals friends family but no one least of all Herrick said it was going to be easy His portraits of the members of a distinctly American family a novella five short stories and a group of five letters comprise not quite a novel but more than a collection of stories I think of it as a co-operative structure the author says in which each character owns and occupies his or her own place yet it is the entire family which operates the building To simplify matters I call the book a fiction And so we learn the past and present of each of the Millers Max and Rebecca Rebecca's mother Ruth in an old folks home and the three Miller children Eli an obsessive artist Peter an amateur student of life as he bums rides across the country and teen-ager Nina a not so innocent working class child away at prep school on a scholarship But we learn about them in counterpoint and mosaic as Herrick turns our attention and our allegiance first to one member of the family and then another There are few books where human weaknesses are so fully displayed and yet where human endurance and capacity for joy are so palpably present The Congregationalist, 1928
