Helping Skills for Social Work Direct Practice

Jacqueline Corcoran, 2011-09-29 Direct practice foundation courses in social work prepare students for every step of the problem solving process yet too often emphasize the what and the why of practice at the expense of the how This practical easy to use and hands on guide bridges this gap by illustrating the helping skills that practitioners can actually use to influence people's lives in positive ways Integrating two major helping models motivational interviewing and solution focused therapy it equips students with the techniques and skills necessary for activating client strengths throughout the problem solving process Helping Skills for Social Work Direct Practice presents a wealth of sample dialogue exercises tips and do's and don'ts all designed to encourage learning by doing This workbook helps make the links between theory and practice with these unique features Chapters logically organized by phases of the problem solving process Case demonstrations involving a variety of roles including case manager crisis intervention counselor medical social worker and school social worker Practice exercises that prompt students to apply and generalize skills to different practice settings and client problems Exhibits and reflection questions facilitate integration between classroom learning and the internship experience An online instructor's manual www.oup.com/us/helpingskills with detailed answers to discussion questions From the first meeting with clients to assessment goal setting evaluation and the ethics that guide the process throughout this is the nuts and bolts guide to helping clients using a strengths based perspective The Structural Approach to Direct Practice in Social Work Gale

Goldberg Wood, Ruth R. Middleman, 1989 Structural social work assumes that clients are adequate people in untenable situations The social worker must display active appreciation for the client's competence in telling about what does matter rather than what the practitioner thinks should matter Getting Ready for Direct Practice in Social Work Peter

Scourfield, 2017-05-08 This very practical book will support students to meet the requirements of the compulsory Readiness for Direct Practice assessment Useful for social work students and lecturers alike it takes each of the 9 domains that students are tested on breaks them down step by step and provides a range of interactive activities that enable them to acquire the knowledge values and skills for practice required at this level It offers students a foundation to the key areas of knowledge for each of the 9 domains while also signposting them to other popular books in the Transforming Social Work Practice series for a more detailed discussion as well Direct Practice in Social Work: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide

Oxford University Press, 2010-05-01 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of social work find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated related A reader will discover for instance the most reliable introductions and overviews to the topic and the most important publications on various areas of scholarly interest within this topic In social work as in other disciplines researchers at all levels are drowning in potentially useful scholarly information and this guide has been created as a tool for cutting through that material to find the exact source you need This ebook is a static version of an article from Oxford Bibliographies Online Social Work a dynamic continuously updated online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through scholarship and other materials relevant to the study and practice of social work Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www aboutobo com Social Work Skills Demonstrated Judith Sevel,Linda Cummins,Cesar Madrigal,Jim Cummins,1999 Video clips are used to demonstrate various techniques used in social work interviews Text definitions of terms text synopses of the situations used in the video clips and a self paced quiz are also provided in the program The student guide includes background information on social work techniques examples and exercises The Handbook of Social Work Direct Practice Paula Allen-Meares,Charles D. Garvin,2000 The Handbook of Social Work Direct Practice provides an extraordinarily extensive coverage of all major topics relevant to Clinical Social Work The Contributors to this volume under the leadership of Paula Allen Meares and Charles Garvin guide the reader through discussions about the contexts of social work practice multicultural and diversity issues research as well as assessment and measurement All in all this is the perfect primary text for administration courses in MSW programs BSW programs and doctoral programs Practitioners and professionals in the field will find here all the useful elements a key reference work can provide Competency in Generalist Practice Elizabeth Moore Plionis,2007 Competency in Generalist Practice features an original and timely social work practice model that will transform the way generalist and evidence based practice are taught Writing with outstanding clarity and sense of purpose Elizabeth Moore Plionis guides students in the use of a decision tree that will help them take a conscious theory and evidence based approach to solving the complex problems they will face as social workers This book is a concise but powerful tool for learning how to become an effective social work practitioner Presents direct and indirect practice in alternate chapters rather than separate volumes comparing and contrasting them in an easy to grasp manner Includes chapters on topics rarely found in comparable texts including professional regulatory and fiduciary responsibilities case and class advocacy and service delivery to impoverished families and children Covers important macro practice skills such as non clinical communication crisis management and the use of groups in policy management and community and social change Features flow charts decision schemas and examples of process recordings that vividly illustrate the material Incorporates both traditional and new theories into the discussion linking them to technique and putting them in the context of direct and indirect methods at each step of the decision hierarchy Supplemented by a companion website that contains slides and a teachers guide for download
