African Nights:

Georgina's Story Linda Louisa Dell, 2019-12-09 Georgina's life is in turmoil. A broken relationship, a passionate love affair, a life-threatening illness, her lover's disastrous trek into the wild lands of the Kalahari and the trauma of realising that she has made a great mistake. These are just some of the challenges she confronts in this gripping story. When Georgina's parents decided to take the family on a safari in South Africa to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary, they had little idea of the outcome. Georgina meets Sammy, the enigmatic safari leader; they fall in love. During Georgina's visits, she experiences the darker side of Africa when a boy is kidnapped and the culprits are found to be involved in obtaining body parts for witchcraft and poaching rhino horns and ivory.

The Story of an African Farm Olive Schreiner, 2003-01-27 The Story of an African Farm 1883 marks an early appearance in fiction of Victorian society's emerging New Woman. The novel follows the spiritual quests of Lyndall and Waldo, who each struggle against social constraints in their search for happiness and truth. Lyndall against society's expectations of women and Waldo against stifling class conventions. Written from the margins of the British empire, the novel addresses the conflicts of race, class and gender that shaped the lives of European settlers in Southern Africa before the Boer Wars. This Broadview edition includes appendices that link the novel to histories of empire and colonialism, the emergence of the New Woman and the conflicts between science and religion in the Victorian period. Contemporary reviews are also included.

African American Military, Mason, and Muslim Dr. M. Shaheed Aadam, 2025-01-28 This is not only a story of my life but it details the history that I came across. I wanted to let people know that my beginnings were quite rocky but I began to question religion at an early age. I want people to know my fascination with the US Navy and the rest of the military. This book will answer quite a few questions people have had about so-called African Americans and what really makes us tick in so many words or less. Though I can't speak for all Black folks, I can say what I know and not what I've heard.

Engaging African American Males in Community Colleges Ted N. Ingram, James Coaxum, 2018-05-01 This volume dedicated to the engagement of African American males in community colleges furthers the research agenda focused on improving the educational outcomes of African American males. The theme of engagement also supports the anti-deficit approach to research on African American males developed by renowned research scholars. The true success of African American males in community colleges rests on how well these institutions engage young men into their institutions. This will require community colleges to examine policies, pedagogical strategies and institutional practices that alienate African American males and foster a culture of underachievement. The authors who have contributed to this volume all speak from the same script, which proves that when African American males are properly engaged in an education that is culturally relevant, they will succeed. Therefore, this book will benefit ALL who support the education of African American males. It is our intent that this book will contribute to the growing body of knowledge that exists in this area as well as foster more inquiry into the achievement of African American males. The book offers three approaches to understanding the engagement of African American males in community college which includes empirical research policy perspectives and programmatic initiatives African Exploits William G. Stairs,1998 A record of the experiences of a young Canadian caught up in European expansion into Africa in the 1880s African Exploits provides a disturbing record of William Stairs s two African expeditions and the devastating clash of cultures that occurred during the imperial scramble for the dark continent A Sister of the Red Cross: A Tale of the South African War L.
